MSP panel after polls, put off on EC's advice

Farmers have to wait at least a month

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

CLEARING the air on the delay in setting up the promised panel on the Minimum Support Price (MSP) mechanism, Union agriculture minister Narendra Singh Tomar on Friday told the Rajya Sabha that it was deferred at the behest of the Election Commission.

While announcing the repeal of three farm laws in November last year, the Centre had promised to set up a committee to discuss the farmers' demand of a legal guarantee on MSP. Since elections to five states, including Uttar Pradesh and Punjab, are due, the government had written to the EC for guidance.

"The EC's reply has come. It has said that the committee should be formed after the elections conclude," the minister said in a written reply to a question by Sukhram Singh Yadav (SP). Since the counting of votes will happen on March 10, farmer unions will have to wait at least a month for the panel to be set up.

"The entire country knows that the prime minister has announced the formation of a committee to make crop diversification, natural farming and MSP effective and transparent. The government is committed to the announcement made by the PM," Tomar assured.

Tomar's remarks came a day after the Samyukta Kisan Morcha, an umbrella body of over 40 farmer unions, accused the Centre of not fulfilling its

Guarantee proposal

The inter-ministerial panel set up in 2007 had rejected Swaminathan Committee's proposals on MSP guarantee, promotion of organic and zero budget farming, Choudhary said promise of setting up the MSP panel soon. The Morcha had also urged UP voters to punish the BJP for reneging on its promises to farmers.

Responding to a supplementary question from BJD leader Sammit Patra on implementing the Swaminathan Committee's recommendations, Minister of State for Agriculture Kailash Choudhary said the panel had recommended MSP to be fixed 50% higher than the cost of production but this was not accepted by the inter-ministerial panel then.

"However, our government accepted that recommendation. And now procurement is being undertaken at MSP that is 50% higher than the cost of production," he said.

ED arrests Channi's nephew

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chandigarh / New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate has arrested Punjab Chief Minister Charanjit Singh Channi's nephew Bhupinder Singh alias Honey in a money laundering case linked to alleged illegal sand mining. The action comes just two days ahead of the visit of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi to Ludhiana, where he is expected to announce the party's CM face for Punjab. Channi is the frontrunner in the race.

Sources said Bhupinder was called for questioning at the Jalandhar ED office on Thursday. The ED sleuths decided to take him into custody after several hours of questioning as he was evasive in his replies. Officials said he was kept in a lockup in ED's Jalandhar office the whole night. He was produced in court on Friday and was remanded in ED custody till February 8. He will be allowed to meet his family for two hours daily.

Channi said he respects law but alleged the action against his relative was due to political vendetta by the Centre.

Reacting to the arrest, the Congress accused the Centre of turning the ED into Election Department. "Attacking Channi by digging up his nephew's six-year-old case, attacking Sidhu in a 33-year-old case are extensions of support to Kejriwal," said Congress media department chief RS Surjewala.

DEPENDS ON THE MASK

Just like the virus, masks have variants too. One of the most powerful mask variants is the scientifically designed N95 mask, or its comparable BIS certified FFP2 mask.

If we all wear these masks, we can stay protected from viruses (including the fast spreading variant) for up to 25 hours*, even in the presence of an infected person. With cloth masks, this duration drops to a mere 27 minutes*.

FFP2 masks have electrostatically charged layers that ordinary masks do not have. It's no wonder that it is recommended to use FFP2 or N95 masks.

Burning of coal, garbage too polluting Bengaluru

With high-rises and tech parks, Bellandur ward biggest contributor

Burning of garbage is not just an eyesore, but also causes several respiratory issues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BURNING coal in ward numbers 4, 15, 51, 128 and 149, wood in low socio-economic areas, fuel in Peenya-Dasarahalli industrial clusters and garbage in the city contribute to 2-7 per cent of air pollution in Bengaluru, reports the emission inventory and source apportionment study report.

Released by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Environment and Tourism Minister Anand Singh, the report revealed that transportation continued to be the biggest air polluter at 40-51 per cent and road dust resuspension the second prime contributor at 17-51 per cent. The construction sector was responsible for 6-11 per cent, while diesel generator sets contributed 9 per cent.

The report pointed out that Bellandur ward (number 150) – with around 6,000 high-rise buildings and IT parks – alone

ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION IS AN URGENT NEED: CM

On the sidelines of the event, CM Basavaraj Bommai said environment protection is an urgent need. "In Bengaluru, solid waste management has become a big challenge. Of the total waste generated in the city, 60-65 per cent is organic. All efforts will be made to convert it into manure locally. KSPCB should take up a study and submit a report to the government," Bommai added.

contributed 11 per cent of the total particulate matter load. High emissions were also observed from IT parks, industries and commercial spaces.

The annual report of KSPCB for 2020-21, the source apportionment and emission report 2021 for Bengaluru and environment report card of Bengaluru 2021 were released on Friday.

KSPCB Chairman Shanth A Thimmaiah said that this is the first time that a source apportionment study was done for the city. "Now we know the problems and action will be taken with the help of all other government departments. The aim is to create awareness, know the exact problems and channelise ways to tackle it. The present findings show that pollution has come down from 73 parts per million cubic metre (PPMCM) to 54 in one year. The aim is to achieve the target of reducing air pollution by 25 per cent by 2024 that was set under the National Clean Air Programme."

The study was done by C-Step. KSPCB has tied up with IIT-Chennai to do similar studies in Hubballi-Dharwad, Kalaburgi and Davangere, which have been identified as the next rapidly developing cities in the state.

Thimmaiah said that the study will act as a performance indicator to implement the 44-point action plan report. It will also help in creating a micro-action plan to address each of the issues in the report and meet the national target.

Action teams will be formed to address the issues raised in the study, like garbage and coal burning. More work will be done to reduce vehicular emission and stress will be on quick introduction of electric buses and other vehicles.

BBMP begins groundwork for budget

Opinions and suggestions from citizens, experts and representatives' groups and organisations will also be taken into consideration while drawing up the budget

Gaurav Gupta, BBMP Chief Commissioner

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

PREPARATIONS are on to draw up the city budget, with the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) head office collecting financial details of all works done, and the cash in the kitty.

BBMP is working on Bengaluru's budget for which is usually announced 15 days after the state budget. This year, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai is due to present the budget in the first week of March.

BBMP Chief Commissioner Gaurav Gupta on Friday said that discussions are due to begin, and details of funds allocated by the government, programmes and projects announced by the government, work done so far, progress of ongoing projects, funds available with BBMP, income and expenditure, ongoing schemes and representations made will be considered. Gupta said a draft will be drawn up after discussions with the chief minister. BBMP will be working closely with Bommai as he holds the Bengaluru Development portfolio and is closing monitoring projects of the Bengaluru Vision document.

Gupta told reporters that opinions and suggestions from citizens, experts and representatives' groups and organisations will also be taken into consideration while drawing up the budget.

On the question why there is low demand in many Indira Canteens, Gupta said it was a matter of concern and there is a need to assess each canteen and the situation at the ward level. Based on this, the next course of action could be decided – whether they can be improved or shut down. The quality of food and details of the contractors will also be taken, he added.

On the decision to file FIRs for bad roads, Gupta said if roads have been dug illegally or contract norms have been violated, zonal officials have the power to take the legal route. If no road cutting permission has been given, FIRs can be filed.

HC relief to 9 IIMB postgraduate students

ENS @ Bengaluru

IN a relief to nine postgraduate students of IIMB, the Karnataka High Court on Friday dismissed an appeal filed by the IIMB against a single-judge order that had asked the institute to reconsider the quantum of punishment against the students for an alleged malpractice in an examination.

IIMB imposed 'disproportionate punishment' by expelling the students who had formed a WhatsApp group to assist each other in answering questions during an online mid-term exam in 2021. On hearing the students' plea, the single judge on December 20, 2021 directed IIMB to reconsider the punishment. Against this order, the IIMB filed the appeal.

A division bench of Chief Justice Ritu Raj Awasthi and Justice Suraj Govindaraj observed that for first-time offenders, zero marks to be given for all exams, and for repeater offenders, grade U (unsatisfactory) plus zero grade etc. No reasons have been assigned as to why some students were punished with severe penalty of expulsion, it said.

The court noted that the manual does provide for severe punishment of expulsion, but it does not mean it has to be resorted to. "We do not find any illegality in the findings... We feel it appropriate that if the students are again involved in such activities of cheating, then IIMB would take serious action against them as per the manual," the court said.

Go to NGT, HC tells compost corporation

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Friday asked the Karnataka Compost Development Corporation Ltd (KCDCL) to approach the appellate authority, the National Green Tribunal (NGT), against the closure order passed by the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) on January 27, for not complying with provisions of the Water and Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act.

A division bench passed the order after hearing the petition filed by KCDCL against the KSPCB order. The KCDC was inspected by KSPCB officials on January 12 when it was pointed out that old stock of refuse-derived fuel (RDF) was left uncapped and stored separately in an open area. Bio-filters in the processing area were not operational and bad odour prevailed within the sheds, and at lower levels in and outside the plant premises. It was also pointed out that netlon mesh was not provided at the RDF segregation area and there was no separate collection tank for vehicle wash water. It was also observed that the accumulated legacy waste was about 45,000-50,000 tons.

In view of these issues, the KSPCB chairman ordered the immediate closure of the KCDCL facility at Haralakunte village near Madiwala on Hosur Road. Power utility BESCOM was asked to disconnect power supply and the Deputy Commissioner was directed to seize the unit forthwith.

'T-Manas' will provide 24x7 mental health care

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

NIMHANS, which has been appointed the nodal centre for the upcoming Tele Mental Health Assistance and Nationally Actionable Plan through States (T-Manas) initiative, announced in the Union Budget, will act as a 24x7 mental health facility.

A statement by Nimhans said, "The vision of T-Manas is to provide immediate mental health intervention to people in mental distress, particularly those in remote and underserved areas of our country. The vision is also to link T-Manas with existing in-person mental health services to provide a comprehensive continuum of care." Technical support will be provided to the institute from the Indian Institute of Information Technology, Bengaluru. The institute has been chosen as the nodal centre, due in part to its experience of running multiple helplines and training professionals as part of the helplines. It has also been a central figure in providing mental healthcare, especially through the pandemic.

"... in the wake of Covid-19 effect on mental health, we need an innovative, contemporary strategy that will reach people in a timely manner to alleviate their psychological distress, to address common mental health problems, to swiftly identify severe mental illness and suicidality and obtain timely professional help," the institute said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

05th February: Did you know that some evidence shows that the New Moon is strongest for men, the Full Moon for women? No? Well, not many people have heard about this research. It means that if you're a man you may be behaving strangely and, if you're a woman, you might have to take charge and keep order. Not a bad thing, I'd say!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)
The chances are very strong that those of you with busy professional schedules will be working this weekend. Other Aliens will be kept active pursuing ambitious worldly schemes. But remember, whatever you're doing, it works best if you have a genuine passion for it.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)
Hopefully you have had the opportunity to revise arrangements affecting children. You may also have been able to re-establish social or romantic connections which had been broken or postponed. The essence of the current moment is to establish absolutely equal, honest and open relationships.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You can pre-empt imminent planetary movements and make an effort to form new relationships. From this weekend onwards, partnership and teamwork will be the main consideration at work and in your personal affairs. Actually, the most important people could turn out to be those you have known for a long time.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
If you're following precise planetary patterns, now is the time to make formal arrangements, but also to break out and abandon your commitments. Romantic illusions may be nothing more than harmless fun. In other words, the possibilities are various, the options many.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
This is a superb day for local jaunts or country trips. You should now be free of the pressures that have made travel such a risky business over the past few days. You may afford to be more confident in personal matters, perhaps because other people are no more open to your brand of doing things.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Although you would still be advised against any temptation to indulge in speculation, you may now begin to plan sensible domestic spending. Those of you involved in property deals may look forward to better conditions some way down the line – perhaps sooner than you think.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The Sun and Mars, those two ambitious and energetic planets, are still your faithful allies. Aim as high as you wish now, because until you try, there is no knowing what can be achieved. The first step is to gather information, so that you find out what other people are up to.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 23)
The reason why partners or close associates have been so off-hand and unco-operative is still far from clear. However, in the financial area you will now find it much easier to reach some sort of consensus. You'll be keeping your plans to yourself for a while, so watch your tongue.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 - Dec. 23)
Because the planets are constantly on the move, no one situation ever lasts for too long. The planetary configuration is now improving, and you will be the first to feel the refreshing winds of change. Social and team enterprises benefit first.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 - Jan. 20)
Neither adverse planetary aspects nor your sober Capricornian nature should be allowed to dampen the current enthusiasm for life. However, in some way, professional concerns are likely to intrude on the weekend. They may concern partners or relations, but you'll still have your say.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Now that goodwill is returning, you may receive appreciation for your worthwhile efforts on other people's behalf. You may, if you wish, announce to the world your intentions for the future. You seem to be prepared to make the most of yourself for once.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)
You must expect controversy. There is, after all, no reason why people should accept what you say at face value. You must make the effort to explain yourself. I know you think everyone can read your mind, but you'd do better to set out your case as carefully as you can.

114 cancer-causing variants found

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN what is claimed to be path-breaking research, a city-based government institute in collaboration with HCG, has identified 114 genetic variants which cause oral cancer in humans. The study also revealed key genetic signatures that can predict survival in oral cancer patients with over 90 per cent accuracy.

Speaking about it on the occasion of World Cancer Day at Vidhana Soudha, Minister for IT/BT and Science & Technology Dr C N Ashwath Narayan said research was conducted jointly by doctors from HCG and the Institute of Bioinformatics and Applied Biotechnology (IBAB), an institute set up by the IT/BT department, using state-of-the-art genomics facility at IBAB. He said the study made extensive use of Advanced Machine Learning and Bioinformatics.

"Through oral cancer is one of the most common in the country (40% of all cancer cases), this was the first time such extensive research was carried out on it.

Data obtained has been compared with western genetics. The work has already been acknowledged by international bodies like the Royal College of Surgeons of England. The study report has also been published in a highly acclaimed medical journal," he explained.

According to doctors from HCG, the analysis of mutations gave out a list of unique genes associated with 114 novel variants, of which 35 were oncogenes, 11 were tumour suppressors and two DNA damage repair genes. This finding can guide doctors towards cell targeted personalised treatment.

JUST 25 days after the Covid-19 booster or precaution dose was launched in Karnataka, the state has met 39.73 per cent of its target of 21 lakh people - 8,34,474 beneficiaries were covered until February 3. The highest coverage is among the 60-plus age group, with 52.33 per cent of the target population or 4,18,684 people having already received the precaution dose.

On the other hand, coverage of frontline workers remains the lowest, with only 17.08 per cent or 1,19,599 covered so far. Coverage of health workers stands second, with 49.36 per cent or 2,96,191 workers vaccinated.

Health Commissioner D Ran-deep said, "The low coverage of frontline workers is because many were infected with Covid-19 and have to wait for three months before they can take the precaution dose. Among the elderly population, many are coming forward but there are a few who have misconception about the third dose. We are pushing for maximum coverage." Arundhati Chandrashekar, Managing Director, National Health Mission, was unreachable for comment.

Beneficiaries who have received Covaxin and Covishield are eligible for the same precautionary dose they have taken earlier. Those who have taken Sputnik are not yet eligible for the third dose. The Co-WIN slots for precaution dose will be visible to eligible beneficiary groups after completion of nine months (39 weeks) from the date of second dose.

Meanwhile, Bengaluru Rural, Bengaluru Urban (excluding BBMP) and Vijayapura are the only districts to have crossed 100 per cent of target population with respect to the second Covid-19 dose. The districts with lowest second dose coverage include Ballari, BBMP area, Chamarajanagar, Chikkamagaluru, Chitradurga, Dakshina Kannada, Kalaburagi, Raichur, Shivamogga, Yadgir and Udupi.

'Women above 30 should screen for cancer'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Friday launched a week-long cancer awareness and medical check-up campaign to be held across all district and taluk hospitals, as well as community health centres (CHCs) and primary health centres (PHCs), and private hospitals.

Dr Sudhakar urged all women aged above 30 to get themselves screened for cancer. "Women above 30 years must be aware of uterus and breast cancers, which accounts for 30-40 per cent of cancer deaths among women.

Women must get checked for cancer at least once every 5 years. Lung cancer and oral cancer are predominant among men due to smoking and tobacco use. People must abstain from these and maintain a healthy lifestyle," he said.

As per World Health Organisation (WHO), rise in cancer cases is seen in countries with high illiteracy and poverty and therefore, the State has launched the awareness and screening camps in slum areas.

He said that all district hospitals have cancer diagnosis centres which have been extended to taluk hospitals and the government intends to make this facility available at CHCs soon.

Back to the movies, gym and pool, govt allows 100% capacity

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

OBSERVING the trend of Covid-19 cases and rate of hospitalisation, the Karnataka government has decided that from February 5 onwards, full capacity will be allowed in gyms, yoga centres, cinema halls, multiplexes, auditoriums, rangamandiras and swimming pools. These restrictions were brought in place when the third wave began in the last week of December, triggered by Omicron.

The relaxations were announced after a review meeting held by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar, Technical Advisory Committee chairman Dr M K Sudarshan and other senior officials of the health and family welfare department.

"In January, Covid-19 hospitalisation rate was at 5 per cent but has now reduced to 2 per cent. Losses were incurred by different sectors, and keeping these in mind, restrictions on seating capacity have been relaxed by CM Bommai. However, precautionary measures still have to be followed," said Sudhakar.

These include wearing of N95 masks at all times within the cinema hall, which has to be enforced by the staff. Food will not be allowed inside, though people may eat outside the hall during interval, said Sudhakar. Failure to follow these rules will invite action. The hall and rest rooms are to be sanitised after every show. For gyms and yoga centres, activity shall be conducted outdoors whenever possible.

In gyms, yoga centres and swimming pools, a physical distance of six feet or two metres shall be maintained between people, and the halls, rest rooms and change rooms shall be sanitised after every session or batch.

Those using these facilities must be fully vaccinated, and will be checked for fever. Air-conditioning shall be maintained as per the Central Public Works Department guidelines. Local authorities will pay surprise visits to ensure compliance.

Quality medicines at low prices: Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

ADDRESSING a review meeting of health and medical education departments, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said that patients should get quality medicines at minimum price in government hospitals, and distribution of medicines should be decentralised.

"Stock and account records should be digitised. Quality of medicines purchased should be confirmed. Medicines should be procured directly from the manufacturers after comparing their prices in neighbouring states," Bommai said, adding that drug outlets should be present in local areas and all medicines must be available.

He also asked officials to formulate an integrated nutrition programme to improve mother and child health within a year, and pointed out that more focus is needed at the taluk and districts. "Get the necessary funds to improve nutrition level and bring a significant change in this regard within a year," he said.

Bommai instructed the setting up of new Primary Health Centres in districts where they are needed, and also emphasised the need for setting up dialysis centres in PPP model in the districts. He told medical education officials to write to the National Medical Council to make one-year internship compulsory for medical students in government colleges.

"Relieve district medical officers from administrative work of hospitals and appoint KAS officers for that purpose," he said.

HEADSCARF CONTROVERSY ERUPTS AT MORE COLLEGES

Students denied entry to classes; Standoff on at 2 more institutions

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

THE controversy over wearing of the hijab spilled over into two more colleges in Udupi district on Friday while it continued to simmer at two other government colleges.

A group of 12 girls, wearing the hijab, were prevented from entering the Government PU College at Byndoor on Friday after other students objected to permission given to them to sport the headscarf. About 150 boys had arrived at the college wearing saffron shawls. The college authorities then decided to deny entry to both groups.

College principal M P Naik said that the students have been told to attend classes only in regular uniform and not with any additional attire like hijab or shawls. "Till the government gives an order in this regard, status quo should be maintained," he said.

At Bhandarkar's College in Kundapur, some students who had come wearing headscarves too were denied permission to attend classes.

Meanwhile, the six students of the Government PU College for Girls at Udupi, where the hijab row first erupted, continued their protest outside the campus on Friday. At the Government PU College in Kundapur too, students wearing headscarves were not allowed to attend classes on Friday. Additional police forces were deployed in Kundapur after some Udupi district CPI(M) secretary Balakrishna Shetty said what started at the Government PU College in Udupi, is now spreading to various other colleges in the district. "When the girls at the Kundapur college were attending classes wearing the hijab for long, why are they suddenly being denied entry now?" he questioned.

BJP backward classes

marcha national general secretary Yashpal Suvarna, who is also the vice-president of the college development committee of the Udupi Women's Government PU College, said Left wing organisations are creating this 'hijab row' to benefit from polarisation. "This is an organised way to tarnish the image of the coastal region as there are internationally famed educational institutions here," he remarked.

STUDENTS WEAR SAFFRON SHAWLS, PROTEST

Belagavi: Tension prevailed after a group of 10 to 12 students wore saffron shawls and shouted slogans in protest against the Udupi hijab controversy, at Government PU College in Ramdurg, Belagavi district. Staff members stopped the students from protesting, and local police rushed to the spot and asked the students to take off their shawls. The students argued with faculty on the hijab row and a few right-wing leaders reached the college and questioned police. In a video which went viral, a police sub-inspector tells them that Ramdurg has not witnessed communal clashes, and should not. Police and faculty convinced them to remove the shawls, and the principal warned them of stern action. ENS

GIRLS' ISLAMIC FORUM OBSERVES HIJAB DAY

Mysuru: With the controversy over students of Kundapur Junior College being barred from classes for wearing hijab drawing national attention, members of the Girls' Islamic Organisation observed World Hijab Day. The girls, from various educational institutions, gathered near St Philomena's College and staged a silent protest, maintaining that hijab is beyond culture differences, and claimed that they have chosen to wear the hijab. The girls covered their heads with veils and displayed placards, saying the hijab was their pride, choice and freedom. The girls also posted their campaign on social media platforms, appealing to the authorities to permit wearing of hijab in educational institutions. ENS

STUDENT ASSOCIATION CONDEMNS GOVT COLLEGES

Bengaluru: The All India Students' Association (AISA) condemned the actions of the two government colleges in Udupi district that prevented Muslim girls from entering campus because they were wearing the hijab. The association further alleged that the incidents are preventing girls from accessing education. "The incidents are meant to terrorise minorities and are a clear infringement upon the constitutional right of every citizen to practice his/her religion," read a statement by AISA. The association further alleged that the State, that is supposed to protect the constitutional rights of its citizens, is mute while its own governmental colleges are violating those rights. ENS

Much at stake as polarisation politics plays out in coastal region

PRAKASH SAMAGA @ Udupi

WITH the Assembly election just about a year away, the politics of polarisation is back to haunt the coastal region of Karnataka. Beginning with the headscarf row, this is only likely to intensify as political parties look to score points in the run-up to the polls.

While the BJP and the SDPI look to gain from the goings-on, the Congress, which has a voter base scattered across all communities and religions, is treading a more cautious line. Political analysts say that political parties have resorted to such experiments as development issues do not get them the desired results when compared to polarisation.

Over the decades, the coastal belt has become a laboratory for the Sangh Parivar and ahead of every major election, communal issues are whipped up as if on cue. Just like how the BJP expanded its footprints in the region by playing the Hindutva card, the SDPI, which won three seats in a civic poll in Kaup Town, seems to be eager to consolidate on the gains.

According to reliable sources, the hijab row at the Government PU College for Girls in Udupi, where the controversy first broke out, was fuelled by the SDPI and further fanned by the Campus Front of India. Till recently, girls never came wearing the hijab to the college and the issue sprung up suddenly, they pointed out. College development committee president and Udupi MLA K Raghupathi Bhat too is keen to milk the issue, they pointed out.

Political analyst Prof Kokkarne Surendranath Shetty told The New Indian Express that caught between politics and religion, the education of students is at stake. "If the BJP and SDPI leaders are counting on how the polarisation would benefit them, the Congress is trying to play the balancing act. This may play out in different dimensions, but it's innocent people who become the pawns here," he rued.

Educationist Rajendra Bhat K says the tacit involvement of political parties in the hijab row cannot be discounted. "I hope the people, particularly students, do not fall prey to the agenda of the political parties" he said.

Follow uniform rules till HC order, says minorities panel chief

BENGALURU: Karnataka State Minorities Commission chairman Abdul Azeem has asked the Education Department officials to follow uniform rules till the Karnataka High Court pronounces its order. In a letter, Abdul Azeem said, "Till the time the court issues an order, the Pre-University Board commissioner should be directed to follow uniform rules as per the June 1, 2021 circular." Abdul Azeem mentioned that the commission is seized of the matter where six girls from a Government Pre-University College in Udupi were denied entry to the classroom as they came to college wearing the hijab. Last month, the commission had written to the authorities concerned to resolve the issue. However, the case is now taking a different turn as many groups are getting involved and this is leading to harmony being disturbed on college campuses, the Karnataka State Minorities Commission chairman noted. ENS

It is inhuman to stop girls from attending classes and it is an attempt to deny education to Muslim girls

Siddaramaiah, CLP leader and former CM

Inhuman, says Siddu; Congress politicising issue, says Nagesh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE ruling Bharatiya Janata Party and the opposition Congress were engaged in a political slugfest over the ongoing hijab row that has spread to more colleges in coastal Karnataka. The Congress said not allowing Muslim girls from attending classes is a violation of fundamental rights. The BJP hit back by accusing the Congress of politicising the issue to appease the minority community.

Opposition leader in the Assembly, Siddaramaiah, said it is inhuman to stop girls from attending classes and an attempt to deny education to Muslim girls. "What is the problem if they wear hijab? How can an MLA direct the college to make uniforms mandatory when the government has not made uniforms mandatory for PU students?" he thundered.

Congress MLA Zameer Ahmed Khan termed it as a conspiracy by the ruling party to divide communities. State Congress president D K Shivakumar said it is not right for him to comment when the issue has been taken to court.

The BJP leaders accused Congress of politicising the issue. Primary and Secondary Education Minister BC Nagesh said Siddaramaiah is misleading people for the sake of votes as uniform rules were framed during his tenure as CM. Nagesh said children and parents had agreed to follow uniform rules and of the 95 students, only six were wearing hijab. He said eight countries have banned the hijab, but they are not against practising religious customs, he said.

Kannada and Culture Minister V Sunil Kumar said they will not allow Karnataka to become another Taliban state.

He said they cannot make exceptions for students from one religion. "A section of students, who say they are unable to pay fees, have gone to court. It is very clear that some vested interests are trying to disturb harmony on campuses," he said. He also alleged that people in Kashmir reacting to it shows that it is a big network and the State Government will not allow it to escalate further.

Meanwhile, RDPR Minister KS Eshwarappa said, "Hindus and Muslims are like brothers and sisters. If the students are differentiated based on their religion in institutions, it might affect their sentiments. Children go to schools and colleges for education. Why is religion being dragged into it?"

BSY plans state tour to prepare BJP for 2023

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

CLOSE on the heels of former Union minister and Vijayapura BJP MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal saying that the era of BS Yediyurappa was over in Karnataka, the latter has reiterated that he will embark on a statewide tour in a couple of weeks to further strengthen the party ahead of the 2023 Assembly elections. "I should have started the tour sometime back. But it was delayed owing to the Covid-19 pandemic. But I will commence the tour in a fortnight as Covid-19 cases are declining," he told the media on Friday.

The Lingayat strongman said the aim of his tour was to strengthen the party by holding deliberations with key BJP leaders in every district. "The good work and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai government's policies reaching out to people will help us win 130-140 seats in 2023," he added.

Soon after he stepped down as CM last July, Yediyurappa had asserted that he will continue to stay in touch with party workers by launching a statewide tour. But the BJP high command, it is learnt, managed to thwart all his efforts to go all alone by organising events under collective leadership, following which he had to defer his tour plan multiple times. According to party insiders, Yediyurappa now deciding to start his tour is seen as a strategy to establish his son and state BJP vice-president BY Vijayendra as a strong leader, especially as his successor.

River-linking projects will benefit TN more, claims Siddaramaiah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Congress on Friday urged the State Government to convene an all-party meeting to discuss river-linking projects announced in the recent Union Budget.

Opposition Leader in the Assembly Siddaramaiah said that the Centre taking such decisions without consulting states will result in more inter-state disputes over river water sharing. Stating that such projects are not feasible, he said Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman may have announced it as she hails from Tamil Nadu.

After Rajasthan, Karnataka has the highest rain-fed agricultural land, but linking of rivers will ensure that Tamil Nadu gets more water, Siddaramaiah said and added that the Centre must call a meeting of CMs of southern states and also an all-party leaders' meeting to explain which state gets how much water. In the federal system, states have the right to get all information, he added. He said even four days after the budget was presented BJP MPs, MLAs, ministers and even the CM have not spoken about it and how can they protect the state's interests. "The State Government must immediately call an all-party meeting and explain its stand on river-linking. They must tell people if it benefits the state or not," he said.

He said they will not indulge in politics when it comes to land, water, language and border issues and deciding on river-linking without consulting the states is against the federal system.

MAN STEALS PHONE FROM GIRL LOOKING FOR NET LINK

ENSE @ Shivamogga

WHILE lack of toilets in rural areas is risking the lives and dignity of women in many parts of the State, in the Malnad region women are facing a different problem. Lack of internet connectivity is forcing young women to go out of their houses in search of internet network for studying, putting them in danger.

In an incident at Maralagodu village near Tumari on Friday, a biker allegedly snatched away a mobile phone from a young woman when she went out to get internet connectivity for studying. He fled the spot when villagers started gathering. Kargal police confirmed the incident and said an FIR is being registered.

Activist GT Satyanarayana Karur said Maralagodu is a remote village. "A young girl was looking for a spot to get access to the internet as the village lacks proper net connection. A man on his bike, on the pretext of enquiring about the route, snatched the phone away from her. Passersby alerted other villagers immediately after the incident. The man made away, leaving his bike before boarding a ferry," he said. The police arrived at the spot and seized the vehicle.

Satyanarayana said the village lacks connectivity as there are no mobile towers. "Who will take responsibility if the dignity and life of rural women are harmed? The government should provide proper internet connectivity. After this incident, village girls say they are apprehensive now," he said.

THE Opposition Congress in Karnataka seems to have started work on its manifesto for the Assembly elections in the state that are 14 months away. Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee president

DK Shivakumar on Friday said they will come out with a separate manifesto for coastal Karnataka and Malnad regions focusing on creating employment opportunities for local people to stop migration to other states. "We have asked some people to start work on it. The focus will be more on creating employment opportunities for our youth. We have everything in the state and people from here do not have to migrate to other states looking for work," Shivakumar said while addressing party workers from Uttara Kannada district.

The Kanakapura MLA explained that during his recent visit to Goa for campaigning ahead of the Assembly elections, many people from Karnataka who have migrated to that state informed him that they would rather prefer to stay and work in Karnataka if they get an opportunity to do so.

K'taka tableau second best in R-Day parade

Karnataka's tableau representing 'The cradle of traditional handicrafts' has bagged the second spot among the 12 states that took part in this year's Republic Day parade in New Delhi. All the 16 GI tagged traditional handicrafts of Karnataka were featured in the tableau as a tribute to 50,000+ artisans who work tirelessly to carry forward the legacy. CM Basavaraj Bommai appreciated Principal Secretary Manjunath Prasad and DIPR Commissioner Dr PS Harsha for their coordinated effort in conceptualising the tableau. Art director Shashidhar Adapa and Mysuru-based fabricator Akmal Basha were also appreciated. The tableau by Uttar Pradesh bagged the first spot.

Karnataka to create pilgrim facility at Ayodhya

ENS @ Bengaluru

Minister for Muzrai, Shashikala Jolle, on Friday said the government will soon take up creation of facilities in Ayodhya, Uttar Pradesh, for the benefit of pilgrims from Karnataka. Referring to Srisailem in Andhra Pradesh, she noted that a special grant of Rs 85 crore has already been announced to set up facilities for pilgrims from the state and, in the first phase, work will be taken up at a cost of Rs 45 crore.

Pointing out that the government had set aside Rs 287 crore in the previous budget for development of temples, she noted that it is a four-fold increase from the Rs 60-70 crore that used to be earmarked earlier for the department. All temple and wakf land, which are worth hundreds of crores, will be surveyed by the Revenue Department using drones, she said.

The government plans to take up comprehensive development of 25 A-category temples in the state, which see a high number of devotees, at an estimated cost of Rs 1,140 crore in the first phase. Support will also be sought from individuals for temple development and grievances and complaints regarding infrastructure at C-category temples too will be taken up in phases, she said.

WHY COVID-19 DEATH AUDIT IS A MUST IN KERALA

Kerala reported its first Covid death on 28 March 2020, almost two months after the first infection was detected. Since day one, preventing deaths has been a priority for the state government and during the initial months of the pandemic, it took pride in the lower number of deaths. For a long period, the mortality rate hovered around 0.3, and the state earned accolades for its handling of the outbreak. However, as things stand now, the acclaimed Kerala model has taken a thorough beating. With more than 57,000 lives lost, Kerala is second only to Maharashtra in terms of the number of deaths, and its case fatality ratio stands at 0.91, closing in on the national average of 1.19. In October last year, Kerala, prodded by the Supreme Court, began an attempt to correct past mistakes in identifying Covid deaths. Since then, more than 19,000 backlog deaths have been added to its Covid toll—the primary reason for the increase in mortality rate.

What's puzzling, however, is the surge in deaths during the third wave that is dominated by the milder Omicron variant. Kerala recorded the most number of deaths—1,386—among the states in January. While Maharashtra recorded 1,043 deaths in the same period, the corresponding figures for Tamil Nadu and Karnataka are 788 and 669 respectively. A recent analysis of Covid mortality in the UK showed that the risk of death due to Covid for the elderly has come down to just twice that of flu. In the initial phase, Covid was found to be 13 times deadlier than flu for the elderly. Kerala's mortality data should be viewed in this background. The high proportion of the elderly in the population and the increased prevalence of lifestyle diseases are the common reasons cited for such a phenomenon. But, Kerala has achieved universal vaccination and booster doses are now being administered to the elderly. The fact is the government's attempts to hide information on Covid deaths in the initial phase had denied opportunities for independent studies to identify the real reasons for Covid mortality. What the health department needs to do urgently is to launch a comprehensive Covid death audit. Finding out the real causes is the first step in improving the treatment protocol that will eventually help prevent more deaths.

ILL-ADVISED KCR SWING AT THE CONSTITUTION

Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao has triggered a political storm by mooted a new Constitution for India as the existing one, over 70 years old, is no longer relevant for its present-day requirements. While slam-dunking the PM in language that did not behave his position, KCR accused the Centre of trying to usurp the powers of the state. He spoke against the Centre's sway over the subjects in the concurrent list that, he says, essentially should be in the domain of the states besides those in the state list.

KCR is not so naive to be unaware that the Supreme Court had settled the issue as early as in 1973. A 13-judge Bench, while pronouncing its judgment by majority in the Kesavananda Bharati case, had said that the Constitution could not be amended to alter its basic structure and framework under Article 368. In this case, it had defined the basic structure doctrine, which included a democratic form of the government and secular character. Future cases added the supremacy of the Constitution, separation of powers among the executive, legislature and judiciary, and the federal character to the doctrine. As the permanency of the present Constitution is now a fait accompli, KCR could use various platforms already available if he feels that the states are getting a raw deal. For instance, the Inter-State Council is a forum for seeking justice and, if it does not work, the SC will be there to act as the final adjudicating authority. KCR is ill-advised to seek a new Constitution as the present one has enough checks and balances.

Interestingly, BJP leaders argue that they are against a new Constitution though an attempt was made to revamp it in 2000, when A B Vajpayee was the PM. Justice M N Venkatachaliah was appointed the chairman of the National Commission to Review the Working of the Constitution. The commission dug into the issue and came up with a number of recommendations. But remember, the commission's terms of references specifically mentioned that it wouldn't interfere in the Constitution's basic structure. Yet, the recommendations have not been accepted by successive governments so far.

Digital currency and digital university could make government look futuristic. But when poverty and farmer suicides are a routine, job creation should be the number one priority

UNEMPLOYMENT: THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM

ASHOKE K MAITRA

Founder, Sri Ramakrishna International Institute of Management (SRIKOM)

The biggest problem facing India, at present, is unemployment. Lack of employment leads to poverty, malnutrition, poor health status and education, and so on.

Out of India's total population of 1.39 billion people, those living in extreme poverty is 97 million. With the sudden outbreak of Covid-19 in early 2020, many more were pushed into poverty in India. Some estimates showed that 150–199 million additional people could have fallen into poverty by the end of 2021. According to a report by the think tank Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE), around 7 million jobs were lost in the country during the second pandemic wave. Adding to this, the consumption expenditure has come down and the public spending on development was sluggish. So, poverty in India is expected to rise in the coming days.

The greatest provider of unorganised labour in India, after agriculture, is the Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises sector. This sector needs funds to grow that can only be provided by banks as they do not have access to capital markets. However, as financial sector reform is pending, they have very little access to cash. Even though the finance minister, in the recent Budget, has increased the outlay for the MSME sector, the needs of reduction in taxation (as it was done for large-scale industries) and GST were not considered. If the MSMEs do not grow, employment opportunities will not increase in the unorganised sector. As per the World Bank, the gap between rich and poor is only increasing in India and this is not a healthy developmental model.

To worsen things, the present Budget has cut the food and fertiliser subsidy and the allocation to the health sector; that too as the pandemic still rages on. This will make the poor even more vulnerable. Data from the CMIE also shows that the rural unemployment in January fell to 5.84% as against 7.28% in December 2021 while urban unemployment stood at 8.16% compared to 9.30% in December. This is a marginal improvement and that is good news.

But it is disheartening to know that while 2.5% of the GDP is parked with the RBI because the Centre and the states could not spend it on infrastructure development, it could have created jobs and solved problems of unemployment. It is also important to note that the government has allotted one lakh crore in this Budget to the states for infrastructure funding. However, the states already have huge surpluses that have not been spent even in the last year. Then why would they take further loans from the Central government?

The unemployment situation can be tackled by providing skill development training at a much faster rate than what was happening in the last few years. The National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) has more or less failed. No central agency like NSDC can, by definition, be effective. It is a wrong model. India is too big a country. Presently, only 2% of the total workforce in India have undergone skill training through NSDC. In addition, NSDC has cut its target. India has 50% of the population who are less than 30 years of age. If education and skill training is given effectively they can get employed as there is an acute shortage of skilled labour all over the world. India can become the largest exporter of skilled manpower. The IT sector has shown the way. The Central government can easily give a directive and incentive to the industries to train rural and tribal youth in their establishments so that skill training can take place. There are 748 districts and if each industry provides skill training to the poor youth where their industry is located, India can very quickly have a huge skilled workforce. The prime minister's dream of Skill India could then be fulfilled. This will help the rural youth to get jobs in the industry and the industry, in turn, will get trained labour for which there is an acute shortage.

We also need to understand that the formal corporate sector is working at less than 80% levels of productivity. Therefore, one cannot expect great employment opportunities arising from that side.

Another stated agenda of the government was privatisation of PSU industries. Last year the total mobilisation under disinvestment was ₹38,000 crore. This fiscal year, the total mobilisation has been ₹9,300 crore (till November 2021) against a target of ₹1.75 lakh crore. The government has reduced the target for next year to ₹65,000 crore. Disinvestment in poorly run PSUs and banks could have made them more efficient, leading to the creation of jobs that would have solved a part of the unemployment problem. That too has been shelved. It is becoming apparent that both the Central and state governments lack the will to solve the real problems of the nation such as unemployment, poverty, illiteracy, malnutrition, primary health and education.

Creating a digital currency, speaking of a digital university, etc., can make the government look futuristic. However, when 65% or more people are suffering from acute poverty and farmers are routinely committing suicide, employment generation should be the number one priority. Along with that, social security should be provided to the poor, so that people do not die of starvation. The intent seems to be lacking. (ashoke.maitra@gmail.com)

It is important to note that the government has allotted one lakh crore in this Budget to the states for infrastructure funding.

However, the states already have huge surpluses that have not been spent even in the last year. Then why would they take further loans from the Central government?

RELIGIOUS OTHER & 'SECULAR REALM' OF THEYYAM

CHANDRAN T V

Art critic & author. Teaches art history at the College of Fine Arts, Thiruvananthapuram

In 1999, ICHR published a book titled We Lived Together, implying we no longer live together in the time of religious nationalism, which actively emerged in Indian politics since the beginning of 1990s. Corresponding to the same fervour that runs through the book, the Left wing scholars have always been overenthusiastic to interpret and project the ritual dance form of theyyam or kaliyattam of north Malabar as a tradition of the "secular realm". They largely seem to have strained to construct such an image of theyyam under their own self-imposed secularist pressure in order to pit it against the political fervour of religious nationalism. However, perceiving theyyam as a secular realm of communal harmony as it cuts across caste and religious boundaries is simplistic and preposterous. To see it, we have to take a cursory look at a few aspects distinct in the cultic sphere of theyyam.

The village shrine called kavu, in front of which theyyam is performed, has no iconic images of god enshrined in it, only swords and shields that are symbolically to be used during the performance. In terms of worship, this very absence of icon manifests a distinct feature that is so central to the whole cultic practice of theyyam. There is no enshrined interior space demanding to be looked 'in' and conversely, on the part of the devotees, no 'inward' looking, as the theyyam or god is out there in their realm to be prayed to. For this obvious reason, the devotees visit the kavu only during the kaliyattam in which, instead of imagining and experiencing the god with their inner eye, they can see their gods as visible reality. Kavu is the space and kaliyattam is the time for theyyams to reappear before their devotees.

In this specific context, it would be wrong to use the term 'performance' the way it is used in the nomenclature of dance and theatre. Looking from the vantage point of devotees, theyyam is not the representation of the god, it is the god—the re-presentation of what had already been present (in the historical or mythical past).

An interesting point is to be noted here. Irrespective of caste and social position, an untouchable performer can step inside a Nambuthiri (Brahmin) house in the form of a theyyam, which is otherwise dealt with severe punishment. It may seem to be a paradox. However, it is possible in a society that is closely related to the following two concepts; one, the demand for impersonality and two, the belief in transformation—one form of organic life could become another and man could be transformed into god and so on—observes Kapila Vatsyayan, a leading scholar of Indian classical dance and art history. Whatever it might be, one can see here to a certain extent that the caste boundary and strict rules are suspended in kaliyattam.

Yet, there is a striking contradiction that secularist scholars have hardly taken note of. The domination of caste hierarchy seems to have a pivotal role in the evolution of both the cultic and performative aspects of theyyam. For instance, the Pulaya caste, which ranks lowest in the hierarchy, worships many mother goddesses and hero deities, larger in number than those worshipped and performed by any other single caste. A glaring feature is that with very few exceptions, the Pulaya community has no right to perform their theyyam in front of the kavu owned by other castes, so much so that they perform for themselves alone. Velan, to cite another example, is inferior in caste hierarchy and social position, and is allowed to perform his deities but in front of a small hut-like shrine situated conspicuously away or off-centred from the ritual precinct of the main kavu.

Apart from this discrimination in the performative order, the dominance of caste hierarchy had resulted in the deification of numerous deities. There are innumerable thottam songs bearing references to caste-related violence leading to the death of many innocents who were later deified and worshipped as theyyams. The word worship here seems to be slightly misleading, because it is doubtful whether those innocent victims or heroes were absorbed into the cult either to satisfy the urge for worship or to perpetuate the memory or the message of those events in which they lost their lives. From a certain point in history, the whole cultic practice of theyyam was used as a symbolic strategy to disseminate a certain message rooted in the social and political consciousness of the lower caste people who felt prey to the dominance of caste hierarchy and related violence. Whatever might be those messages, today they are all submerged beneath the religious fervour of Hinduism.

One more point to be stressed in this line. Kaliyattam of any kavu owned by a particular caste requires towards its realisation active participation of various other castes. In some cases, even certain families of the Muslim community also play an important part of kaliyattam. This apart, considerably a few mappila theyyams (Muslim deities) are performed sporadically.

The so-called secular realm was built up by magnifying this aspect of participation and deification of Muslims which, in fact, are very scanty in the whole pantheon. Moreover, the secularist scholars seem to have refrained from probing into the specific historical moment in which those Muslims were deified into the cultic sphere of theyyam. Had they ever attempted to historicise the absorption of Muslim deities, they would have dropped them like hot potatoes, because the respective myth and enactment suggest that the Muslim deities are represented as inimical other; in the same fold, it also speaks of immeasurable destructive power of Hindu deities over the religious other. Theyyam is, therefore, not an expression of a symbiotic relationship, but a symbolic expression of conflicts embedded both in the social body and mind. This will be focused in the next discussion. (chandrantsv67@gmail.com)

Irrespective of caste and social position, an untouchable performer can step inside a Nambuthiri house in the form of a theyyam, which is otherwise dealt with severe punishment.

... But there is a striking contradiction that secularist scholars have not taken note of. The domination of caste hierarchy seems to have a pivotal role in the evolution of both the cultic and performative aspects of theyyam.

Boycotting Olympics

The latest entrant to the Boycott-Beijing-Winter-Olympics club is India, after China drafted Qi Fabao—controversial People's Liberation Army commander involved in the June 2020 Galwan Valley conflict—as the torchbearer for the Games. The nation seems to have done so just to spite India and add political colour to the event. The whole nation rallies behind India's decision.

China's myopic action

The Chinese decision to make Qi Fabao

the torchbearer undermines the very spirit of the Olympics, which symbolises a better and more peaceful world articulated by the involvement of the youth in sports without any prejudices. No wonder nations across the world have condemned the Chinese myopic action.

Barbaric practice

The news about the devadasi system still existing in parts of Karnataka is shocking. In an era when women are excelling in all fields, it is barbaric that such acts still exist in the name of custom or religion. It is time for the Centre and state governments to act swiftly and remove the devadasi practice from society.

Exit colonial rule shadow

This is with reference to Democratising honours and overcoming colonial shadow (Feb 4). The author has rightly hailed Prime Minister Narendra Modi for cultivating well-heeled 'Indianness' among our citizens. The legacy of Subhas Chandra Bose cannot be taken lightly. The thousands of Indians who fought for the British army in the two World Wars could be a passing reference in English history, but to us it is something to be remembered. It is high time we come out of the shadow of colonial rule.

Follow hybrid model

As the Omicron wave has still not completely subsided, the Telangana High Court is quite right in suggesting that the option of online classes be given till the end of February. It would be better if schools followed the hybrid model. This way, students don't lose attendance and social distancing is also maintained in offline classes.

Owaisi rejects security, seeks UAPA against attackers

AIMIM Lok Sabha member draws the central government's attention towards the recent hate speeches in Haridwar, Raipur and Prayagraj

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

ALL India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen (AIMIM) chief Asaduddin Owaisi rejected the 'Z' category security announced for his security and instead urged the government to end hate and radicalisation in the country.

In Parliament, Owaisi gave an emotional speech saying he wanted to know who were the people who had radicalised the accused to fire at him. "I don't want Z category security. I want to be an A category citizen, at par with you all. Why was the UAPA not invoked against those who fired at me?" he said, citing the stringent anti-terror law that has been extensively used in the recent times by the BJP-led state governments and the Centre.

"I want to know who are these people who believe in bullets, but not ballots and how come they do not believe in the Constitution. People of Uttar Pradesh will answer bullets

Shah to make statement on Monday

Union Home Minister Amit Shah will give a statement on the firing in Lok Sabha on Monday, Union Minister Piyush Goyal informed Parliament, adding that the UP government has arrested the culprits and also seized the weapon and vehicle used in the attack.

with ballots. How have these youths been radicalised?... If such radicalisation does not stop, it will hurt India and it will also hurt the present government," Owaisi said, appealing to the government to end radicalisation.

Earlier, the Union home ministry announced that it has decided to provide him with Z category security by the CRPF after reviewing the threat level in the light of Thursday's attack. The Hyderabad MP had tweeted photos of two bullet holes on his white SUV. The third bullet, he claimed, had hit a tyre.

On Friday, Owaisi said that the 'dharma sansad' held in Prayagraj and Raipur could also be behind the attack. He said there was a report by Intelligence Bureau on the 'dharma sansad' which should be examined. "Many people are behind them (shooters). A so-called 'dharma sansad' was recently held in Prayagraj where people stood up and talked about killing me. Why isn't the govt acting against these elements?"

The AIMIM MP also asked to establish a de-radicalisation group for all religions. "I have asked this in Parliament in 2015, to establish a de-radicalisation group for all religions. Radicalisation killed Mahatma Gandhi, our two former prime ministers and many other leaders," he said.

Picture with Yogi, accused claims to be BJP member

NAMITA BAIJPAI @ Lucknow

THE two accused — Sachin and Shubham — arrested by UP Police in connection with the attack on Owaisi, were sent to 14-day judicial custody by the Chief Judicial Magistrate in Meerut on Friday.

An FIR was also lodged and the duo was booked under Section 307 (attempt to murder) of the IPC.

One of the accused, Sachin Pandit claims to be a BJP member as he has put up the membership slip of the BJP on social media. In the slip, his name is written as 'Deshbhakt Sachin Hindu'. He has pictures with BJP leaders, including UP CM Yogi Adityanath and Deputy CM Keshav Prasad Maurya. Sachin, an LLM degree holder, lives with his family in Durai village at Badalpur in Noida. The police are verifying his educational credentials.

As per the police, Sachin's father works for private companies on contract. The police found that a case of attempt to murder was earlier lodged against Sachin too.

The other accused, Shubham, is a resident of Saharanpur.

According to ADG (Law & Order) Prashant Kumar, the accused said they were hurt by the "provocative" statements of AIMIM chief and his party members because of which they planned the attack.

The ADG said the two claimed that they were offended by Owaisi's remarks regarding a community and also Ayodhya temple and Ram Janmabhoomi.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) vice-chancellor M Jagadeesh Kumar was on Friday appointed chairman of the University Grants Commission (UGC). JNU VC since 2016, Kumar will be in his new post for five years, or until he turns 65 years, or until further orders.

Afghan army cadets to join 1-yr training programme

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN a major relief for 80 Afghan cadets stranded in India, the government has said they can continue their training at various military academies in the country. They are attending a 12-month programme in effective English communication for business and office purposes.

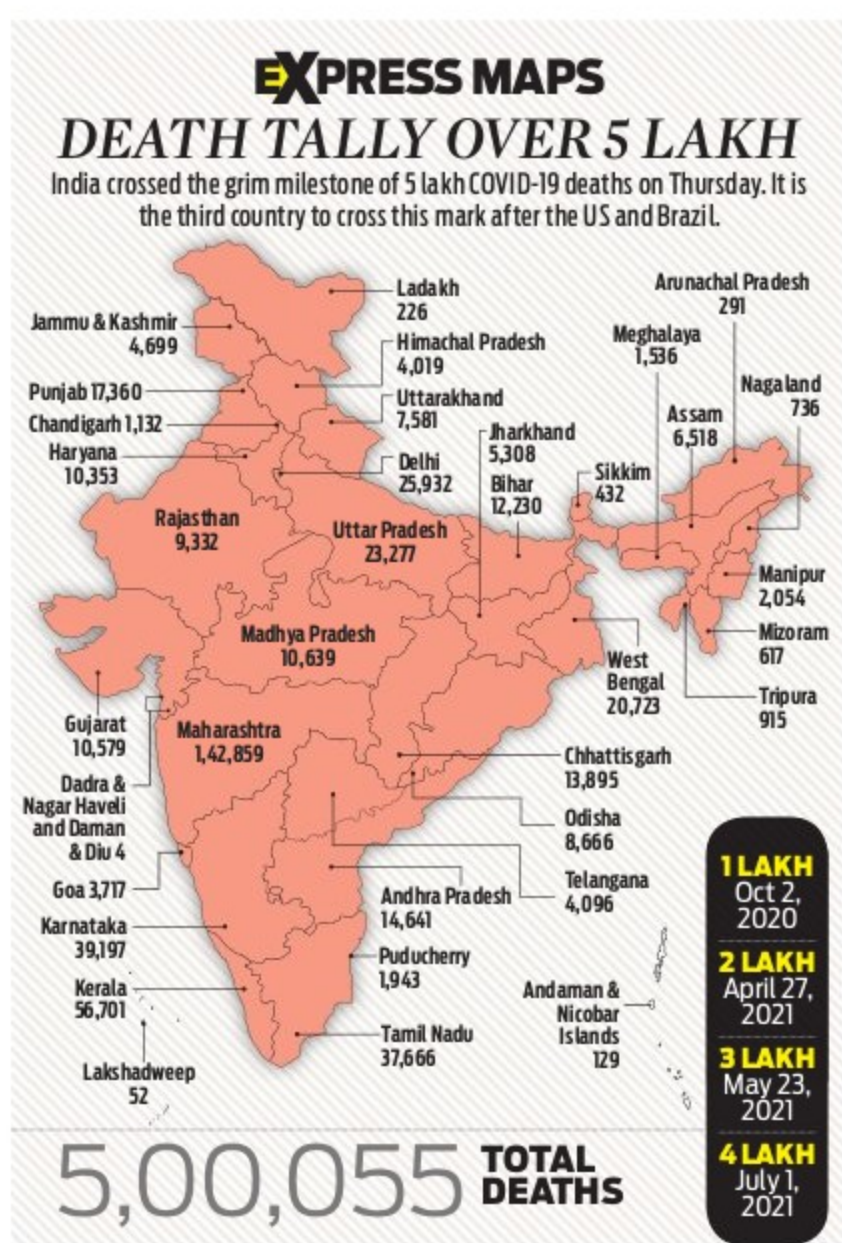

The Embassy of Afghanistan on Thursday released details of the proposal in a press statement. "The 80 Afghan cadets who recently graduated from military academies in India have been offered a 12-month training programme under the ITEC programme by the Government of India."

The training programme is part of an Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation (ITEC) initiative that provides technical assistance to citizens of neighbouring countries. It starts on February 7. The initiative is the flagship training programme of the MEA and it is a part of the country's assistance programmes to friendly countries.

As for the Afghan batch, the cadets will be placed in three institutes and provided accommodation and a monthly allowance.

Training of Foreign Gentlemen Cadets from Afghanistan continued in India even after the Taliban takeover of Kabul. India has been forthright in extending assistance to these trainees. Foreign Gentlemen Cadets earn various diplomas and certificates during their training in India.

This practice of allowing Afghan cadets to train in Indian academies started in the 1970s. In all, over 1,000 cadets have passed out of Indian Military Academy and Officers Training Academy. These cadets also join the National Defence Academy for undergraduate training. In addition, Afghan cadets undergo training at IMA, OTA and NDA.

Kejriwal sharpens attack on Goa Cong

Panaji: AAP convener Arvind Kejriwal on Friday hit out at the Congress, saying that had it worked for people, there was no need for a person like him to come into politics. His statement comes a day after Congress general secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala described Kejriwal as "Chhota Modi" and said he has come to Goa to give "covering fire" to the ruling BJP, which is "losing" ground in the coastal state that is going to polls.

Ahmedabad: The national leadership of the ruling BJP has deputed 25 leaders from Gujarat to campaign in Uttarakhand ahead of the Assembly elections in the state. Be alert against family-driven Samajwadis: PM

Law & order dominates his poll discourse for western Uttar Pradesh, a hub of farmers' stir

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday cautioned the voters of western UP against supporting "family-driven pseudo-Samajwadis" who, he claimed, would re-establish mafia rule in the state if given a chance to return to power.

UP needs a government that continuously works at double-speed and only a double-engine government can do this

Narendra Modi, PM

Addressing a virtual 'Jan Chaupal' across five districts — Meerut, Ghaziabad, Hapur, Gautam Buddh Nagar and Aligarh — in western Uttar Pradesh that will go to polls on February 10, the PM said he was happy that people had decided to not allow rioters and mafia to take control of the poll-bound state.

"You need to be very careful while casting your vote. If they get a chance, these family-driven fake Samajwadis will stop the aid being provided to farmers... These fake Samajwadis will make you go hungry," the PM said.

The BJP leadership has been consistently launching attacks on Akhilesh Yadav-led Samajwadi Party over law and order during its rule. Major portion of PM's speech was dominated by the discussion over state's law and order issue which makes a major poll plank in western UP.

The PM also attacked Akhilesh Yadav without naming him with the rumour-mongering barb. He said the people of UP gave a curt message to Akhilesh Yadav's canard against anti-Covid vaccine by actively participating in the vaccination drive.

The PM also raised the farmers' issue accusing the Opposition of spreading "misinformation campaign" against the MSP and telling the farmers' community that the Centre was all set to abolish MSP. "I must make it clear that Yogi government in UP made a record purchase of food grains from farmers on MSP," he asserted. He also highlighted the Kisan Samman Nidhi being given to farmers.

With Amit Shah by his side, Yogi files papers, says ready for agnipariksha

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

CALLING it an agnipariksha (trial by fire) not only for himself but for the BJP, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath went on to make his debut in the electoral battle of UP Assembly by filing his nomination papers from Gorakhpur Urban seat, his stronghold, on Friday. The voting for the nine seats of Gorakhpur district will take place on March 3.

While filing his papers at Gorakhpur collectorate, the CM was accompanied by Union Home Minister Amit Shah, giving out a loud message of the unflinching support of the BJP brass to Adityanath in UP. "There is no negative feedback from UP people about the BJP government," the CM claimed.

Shah exuded confidence that the BJP would be repeating the history of 2014, 2017 and 2019. "The foundation of good governance was laid under Yogi Adityanath. Today UP is free from mafia," said Shah.

Political experts believe that Adityanath has a sway over at least 60-65 seats of Purvanchal. It was for the first time that Shah joined a candidate in filing nomination papers. "It is an attempt to win the fortress of Purvanchal which is of great significance to the BJP. It is associated with the pride of the party, for both PM Modi and CM Adityanath represent this region. To form government, any party would need to win eastern UP," says Prof AK Mishra, a political scientist.

The BJP along with its allies had registered a big victory in 2017 by bagging 134 seats of the total 171 seats in eastern UP.

Azad, Tewari out of Congress star campaigner list

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

SENIOR party leader Ghulam Nabi Azad and Punjab MP Manish Tewari have been dropped from the list of star campaigners for Punjab Assembly elections.

The party released the list of 30 star campaigners that included former prime minister Manmohan Singh, Congress chief Sonia Gandhi, former chief Rahul Gandhi, general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, Chief Minister Charanjit Singh Channi and Pradesh Congress Committee (PCC) president Navjot Singh Sidhu.

Azad was included in the list of star campaigners for the UP first phase that was released before he was conferred Padma Bhushan by the Narendra Modi government. Tewari has been critical of the party government in Punjab but has been campaigning.

Azad and Tewari have also been part of G23 leaders who wrote to Sonia Gandhi over leadership issues and organisational elections. However, other G-23 leaders like Anand Sharma and Bhupinder Singh are part of the list.

Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot and Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel are also part of the star campaigners list.

Haryana Congress chief Kumar Selja, Rajeev Shukla, Ranjeet Ranjan, Netta D'Souza, BV Srinivas, Imran Pratapgarhi, Amrinder Singh Raja Warring, Amrita Dhawan, Raminder Awla and Tajender Singh Bittu have also been named in the list of 30 star campaigners for Punjab.

FEELING OF ALIENATION IN HOLY CITY

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

ADIL Rana Hussain (32) runs a jewellery shop at Sarafa Bazar Road in Manglaur of Haridwar district. He says roads and other infrastructure have been considerably better in the last three years, but not communal harmony.

Adil cites several cases across the country. "The Dharma Sansad organised in Haridwar last month is an eye opener," he says. Several Hindu radical religious leaders have been booked for allegedly calling for violence against minority community at the meeting in the holy city.

With over 91,000 voters, Manglaur is one of the two constituencies of the state with a Muslim MLA. Muhammad Nizamuddin has been elected thrice from this constituency. He started out as an Independent in 2007 but joined the Congress later. His 2017 victory came amid the Modi wave when Congress shrunk to 11 seats.

Manglaur has over 30%

Manglaur is one of the two constituencies of Uttarakhand with a Muslim MLA

The BJP doesn't work for any vote bank but for the public. Triple taluk, free ration, timely delivery of many other schemes have changed lives for better — Shahid Sayeed, Muslim Rashtriya Manch Muslim votes. It has witnessed a political battle between Qazi Muhammad Nizamuddin and Haji Sarwat Kareem Ansari. The common refrain is: 'Haji or Qazi' — only two names are dominant here. Many allege the incumbent MLA is partial towards some areas.

Vijay Chaudhary from Budpur Jaat village recalls, "Our family used to vote for the Congress no matter if it would win or lose, but not anymore. The current MLA has never visited our village, but wants our vote. The BJP and Congress have had enough share of power. I think we should give chance to others."

One of the issues plaguing the constituency is unavailability of an institution of higher education. Manglaur's literacy rate is 59.04%, which is below the state's average of 78.82%. The demand for a college has been pending for long, residents said.

Abdul Qadir (28), a resident of Lal Bag, says, "Our MLA has promised to resolve the issue if the Congress forms the government. We are going to ensure that the party wins."

Despite huge support for the incumbent Congress MLA, people of the constituency recognise what Modi has done for them. Qadir's 70-year-old father favours Modi for development works. "I got my pension, house and free ration during the Modi rule. I know only Modim" says Jamal Qadir.

However, not everyone is happy with freebies and schemes by the 'double engine' progress.

"What the BJP is really doing is giving something by one hand and taking it back from another. Petrol-diesel prices are skyrocketing, edible oils have crossed ₹200 per liter, LPG cylinder has crossed ₹1,000. So what is free? I guess nothing," said Najma Khatoon from Lal Bazar area.

Meanwhile, the RSS' minority wing, the Muslim Rashtriya Manch, has been campaigning for Dinesh Pawar, the BJP candidate.

JD-U excited as deserters flock to its fold in Manipur

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Janata Dal-United (JD-U) has started dreaming big about the upcoming Manipur polls after a bevy of sitting and former legislators of ruling BJP and Congress joined its fold.

A former chief secretary and a former DGP also joined the party. The JD-U believes it will reap rich dividends from their joining the party.

The BJP's biggest worry was about exodus of its leaders. It had felt those who would be denied party tickets would go to ally National People's Party (NPP) and Congress but most of them defected to the JD-U, thereby bringing it to the lime-light overnight.

The developments made the party so excited that it has decided to contest 37 of the 60 seats. "We fielded candidates in 37 seats. Considering the amazing response we are getting from people willing to contest on our ticket, we are screening some more applications," JD-U state president Hangkhanpao told this newspaper on Friday. "We will assess the winnability factor and may fight in more seats. We have a high chance of winning a number of seats," he added.

Sidhu at it again, says people at top want weak CM

AMRITSAR: Ahead of the announcement of the CM face for the Punjab polls by the Congress, party's state unit chief Navjot Singh Sidhu said "people at the top" want a weak chief minister. "People at the top want a weak chief minister who can dance to their tune," Sidhu said addressing his supporters here on Thursday evening. He did not make it clear whether he was referring to the Congress central leadership or anybody else. When contacted, his media adviser said Sidhu was actually referring to the Centre. Sidhu's remark came at a time when Congress leader Rahul Gandhi is likely to announce the name of his party's CM candidate on Sunday in Ludhiana. PTI

Varavara Rao gets time till Feb 28 to surrender

MUMBAI: The Bombay High Court on Friday extended till February 28 the time granted to poet-activist Varavara Rao to surrender in the Elgar Parishad-Maoist links case.

Rao (83), an accused in the case, was granted temporary bail for health reasons by the high court in February 2021.

He was to surrender on September 5, but filed a plea seeking an extension of the bail and later filed another application seeking permanent bail on the ground of ill-health.

Since then, the high court has extended the time given to him for surrendering before the Taloja prison authorities in Navi Mumbai several times.

As per the last order, Rao was to surrender on February 5. His bail applications were mentioned by the lawyers for urgent hearing on Friday. The bench then deferred the deadline for surrender to February 28. Rao's bail applications are likely to be heard in coming weeks.

The case, now being handled by the National Investigation Agency, relates to 'Elgar Parishad', a conclave held in Pune in 2017. PTI

Haryana moves SC against stay on local quota

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Haryana government on Friday approached the Supreme Court against the Punjab and Haryana High Court order staying the state's law providing for 75% quota to locals in private-sector jobs.

A bench headed by Chief Justice of India N V Ramana agreed to take it up on February 7 after Solicitor General Tushar Mehta mentioned it for urgent listing.

The Punjab and Haryana High Court had on Thursday stayed the Haryana State Employment of Local Candidates Act, 2020, and admitted a petition challenging its validity. Mehta said the high court had passed the order in a 90-second hearing. The HC's order had come on a petition filed by the Faridabad Industries Association and others.

Notified in November last year, the law provides for 75 per cent reservation for local youth in private-sector jobs that offered a monthly salary of less than ₹30,000 from January 15, 2022. The petitioners contended that the Act was against the provisions of the Constitution and went against the basic principle of meritocracy that acted as the foundation for businesses to grow.

The Act is applicable to employers of private sector companies, societies, trusts, limited liability partnerships, etc.

Budget session to be first for new CM, finance minister

The Gujarat Assembly's budget session is slated to begin on March 2. Notably, this will be the first budget session of CM Bhupendra Patel as well as Finance Minister Kanubhai Desai, both of whom were appointed in September last year after CM Vijay Rupani resigned. For the current fiscal, the state has an estimated expenditure of ₹2,23,333 crore, 10% more than that of 2019-20. As the state and national economy is bouncing back from the pandemic and the impact of the lockdown in 2020-21, the revenue receipts of the current and next year are likely to see buoyancy. In 2020-21, the state's revenue collection had declined 19%, by ₹30,158 crore, from that of the previous year. This fiscal, the state has estimated revenue receipts of ₹1,68,219 crore, 8% more than the annual receipts in 2019-20.

Polls months away, yet BJP adding star entrants

Assembly elections may be months away in Gujarat, but the ruling BJP is already welcoming new joiners. Former Kutch district panchayat president Jagruti Shah joined the BJP. Jagruti is the daughter of former finance minister Babubhai Meghji Shah who had won from there in three of the past six elections — once on a BJP ticket in 1995, and twice on Congress tickets. Film artists and popular local leaders make up the joiners. National president of Atmiya Yuva Sangathan Kishor Thakor, actors Falguni Rawal, Bhakti Kubawat, Mamta Soni, Kamini Patel and Dharmishtha Patel, among others, joined the BJP in presence of state party chief C R Patil.

₹91 crore for development of judicial infrastructure

The Gujarat government has approved an allocation of ₹91 crore for the development of infrastructure for the judiciary — with the objective of speedy delivery of justice. It announced that the funds have been allocated to set up new taluka, zila and family courts and develop existing infrastructure. Some portion of the fund will also be used to build residences for judicial officers. Over concerns about delivery of justice to the visually impaired, the state plans to improve accessibility at courts in Kalol, Dehgam, Malpur, Idar, Talod and Bhiloda districts. The state has also approved ₹3 crore for developing existing infrastructure at the Gujarat High Court.

Ukraine crisis: Russia wins Chinese backing

Beijing says NATO should not admit new members, hits out at Washington's 'destabilising' role in global security

MOSCOW

RUSSIA won China's backing in its showdown with the West over Ukraine on Friday as Beijing agreed with Moscow that the US-led NATO military alliance should not admit new members. The demand for NATO to stop expanding came after a meeting between Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping in Beijing that saw Putin hail the two countries' "dignified relationship".

In a long strategy document, Moscow and Beijing hit out at what they said was Washington's destabilising role in global security. "The parties oppose the further expansion of NATO and call on the North Atlantic Alliance to abandon the ideological approaches of the Cold War era," the document read, urging respect for the "sovereignty, security and interests of other countries."

The call echoes demands from Russia that have been at the centre of weeks of intensive negotiations between Moscow and the West, under the shadow of a potential conflict. Western capitals have accused Russia of amassing some 1,00,000 troops on the borders of pro-Western Ukraine in preparation for an invasion and have vowed to impose devastating sanctions on Moscow if it attacks.

German Chancellor Olaf Scholz was the latest European leader to announce a visit to the region on Friday, saying he would go to Ukraine on February 14 and Russia the next day.

French President Emmanuel Macron will visit Moscow on Monday and Kyiv on Tuesday for talks with his Russian and Ukrainian counterparts.

Putin's meeting with Xi — hours ahead of the opening ceremony of the Winter Olympic Games — came after the United States said it had evidence of a plan by Moscow to film a fake Ukrainian attack on Russians to justify an attack on its neighbour. Pentagon spokesperson John Kirby said the US had "information that the Russians are likely to want to fabricate a pretext for an invasion", but did not provide evidence.

Russia, which has repeatedly denied any invasion plans, said the US claims were absurd. "The delusional nature of such fabrications is obvious," Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said in televised remarks. AFP

Macron intervenes as mediator

Paris: French President Emmanuel Macron will fly to Russia and Ukraine next week, reprising his role as a crisis mediator that has produced limited results in the past. He has repeatedly thrown himself into the search for solutions to some of the world's most acute diplomatic problems from Iran's nuclear programme to Libya's civil war. His latest attempts to lower tensions between Russia and Ukraine are consistent with the two main features of his thrusting foreign policy since coming to power. He has always argued that Europe and the EU should take greater charge of its own defence and security, and has sought to push France forward on the international stage.

Ukraine minister hails Western support

Kyiv: Ukraine's Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba hailed Western support after a string of high-profile visits from Western leaders amid fears of a Russian invasion of Ukraine. British, Polish, Turkish and Dutch leaders visited Kyiv this week, and France's Macron is expected to visit Tuesday. "The flow of foreign delegations to Ukraine prevents Russia from further aggravating the security situation," Kuleba told reporters. "Our partners believe in Ukraine and that means Moscow's intimidation strategy is not working. Russia has lost this round," he said.

States spending key to success of infra plan

Centre hopes states will absorb ₹1 lakh cr of the ₹7.5 lakh crore capex allotted in 2022-23, finance secy tells TNIE

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

EVEN as many cast aspersions on the government's ability to exhaust the ₹7.5 lakh crore capex allocation in 2022-23, the central government has high hopes from states to absorb the ₹1 lakh crore capex allocation to states.

"Our expectation is that the states' component of ₹1 lakh crore would be exhausted. Our experience with states has been good so far. We allocated ₹12,000 crore in 2020-21, that was fully spent. And in 2021-22, 97% of the ₹15,000 crore has already been spent," says Finance Secretary TV Somanathan in an interaction with TNIE.

Of the ₹7.5 lakh crore allotted for capital expenditure in 2022-23, ₹1 lakh crore has been provided for states to spend on infrastructure. This amount will be provided in the form of a 50-year interest-free loan.

Somanathan says that the states have a large appetite for it because in the present environment and even otherwise, states when they are cash constrained (as they have a lot of welfare responsibilities) the capital expenses become residual which receives the last flow of money.

Therefore, he believes that the amount allocated is easy for them to absorb and would reach execution level pretty fast.

On why such a large jump in allocation to states - the allocation in the current financial year is ₹15,000 crore (revised) - the finance secretary said that in the pre-budget consultative meeting with finance minister, the state chief ministers and finance ministers had said that the small amount that the Centre had provided in the previous two financial years were very helpful, and they wanted it to be continued and if possible enhanced.

The states, however, had not expected an enhancement of that magnitude, admits the finance secretary.

He says that apart from the ₹1 lakh crore allocated to the states, Centres capex allocation has seen a 20% increase from ₹5.5 lakh crore to ₹6.5 lakh crore and that it can be spent within a year.

Financial services firm Nomura in its recent report has expressed doubts over the "the ability of the government" - both central and states - to spend 2.9% of GDP on capex, saying, it will face "execution hurdles".

It says identification of projects, on-the-ground implementation, coordination with different agencies - all typically lead to a smaller amount being spent than allocated.

However, the finance secretary says the highway ministry, railways and even defence have enough ongoing projects which can be accelerated without too much of a problem.

Our experience with states has been good so far. We allocated ₹12,000 cr in 2020-21, that was fully spent. And in 2021-22, 97% of the ₹15,000 cr has already been spent - TV Somanathan, Finance Secy

JAPAN

NO PLANS TO REVIEW SALES TAX RATES: MINISTER

Japanese is not considering reviewing future national sales tax rates as the current 10% levy provides a vital source of funding the social security spending to support its ageing population, the finance minister said on Friday. Shunichi Suzuki told reporters after a cabinet meeting that Japan must tackle spending and revenue reform to win market trust in its fiscal position, which he said was severe. Meanwhile, Japan's economy likely rebounded in the final three months of 2021 as consumption rose during a drop off in Covid-19 cases, a Reuters poll showed, though it could slide back into contraction this quarter after a spike in Omicron variant infections.

The world's third-largest economy likely grew an annualised 5.8% in October-December, rebounding from a 3.6% contraction in the third quarter, according to a median forecast of 18 economists. The increase was driven largely by a 2.2% rise in private consumption, which accounts for more than half of Japan's GDP. Capex likely gained 0.5% while external demand added 0.3% point to GDP growth in Q4 after neither adding nor shaving off the previous quarter's figures.

SOUTH KOREA

HOUSING MARKET SHOWS SIGNS OF COOLING

Seoul's housing market, one of the most unaffordable in the world, has begun to show signs that its red-hot five-year boom could be running out of steam - just in time for the March presidential vote. Housing is one of the biggest issues in the neck-and-neck election, with prices in the capital having doubled since 2017 when President Moon Jae-in first took office, leaving many millennials facing a lifetime of financial insecurity. An average apartment in Seoul, for instance, is estimated to cost around 18 years of South Korea's median annual household income, up from 11 years in 2017. Recent data, however, has lent weight to the view that restrictions on loans, hikes in interest rates and pledges to massively boost the supply of homes by both presidential candidates have begun to have an effect. South Korean residential property transactions plunged 62% in December to 53,774 from a year earlier - the smallest number for the month since 2008 when the market was battered by the global financial crisis.

ASIAN CURRENCIES

THAI BAHT LEADS ASIAN FX, PHILIPPINE PESO SLIPS

Most Asian currencies strengthened on Friday against a broadly weaker US dollar, with the Thai baht outperforming its peers at the end of a week in which trade was largely subdued by the Lunar New Year holiday. The Philippine peso was an outlier, weakening 0.1% after data showed inflation eased in January from the previous month, prompting the country's central bank to say it will remain patient on policy levers. However, its benchmark index rose 1%, outperforming most of its peers. Otherwise, the baht led the way, firming 0.6% against a US dollar whose index against other major currencies has dropped 2% this week - its biggest weekly fall since March 2020. The country's headline consumer price index jumped to a nine-month high but its commerce ministry said inflation was not alarming and would not require government action yet. Sentiment was also lifted by the Thai government's move earlier this week to invite back fully-vaccinated tourists, in its latest attempt to revive the pandemic-ravaged tourism sector, a key driver of the country's economy. The South Korean won rose 0.8% after the country's inflation came in at a decade high, boosting the case for more interest rate hikes this year.

GOVT IN HOUSE

3 telcos' plans under review for conversion of AGR dues

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU

@ New Delhi

TELECOM Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Friday said that the government is examining proposals from 3 telecom operators who opted for converting interest on deferred spectrum and adjusted gross revenue (AGR) dues into equity.

The minister, while responding to a question in Rajya Sabha, said a one-time option was given to telecom companies to either pay upfront the interest on AGR dues or convert it in the form of equity as part of the reforms announced in September last year. "Three companies have exercised that option. We have received their letters and we are examining them," said the minister.

On the question of BJP leader KJ Alphons, who complained that he is facing a network issue in the heart of the capital city and even in his home state Kerala, Vaishnaw said the problem is related to Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) and requested him to file a complaint there.

In January, VIL and Tata Tele Services (Mumbai) decided to convert the interest on spectrum and AGR dues into equity. The government is the highest stakeholder in Vodafone with 35.8% shares and it owns 9.5% stake in Tata Tele Service (Mumbai), an arm of Tata Tel-services Ltd (TTSL).

UNION BUDGET 2022-23

LOOKING AT THE NUMBERS & BEYOND

THE Union Budget for FY23 was presented with lots of expectations as it does appear that the economy is back on track creating conditions where the budget could make a significant impact.

The Budget has focused on the supply side rather than demand and hence, most measures are aimed at specific sectors that are not just the rising industries but also those which were down under due to the pandemic. As the world moves towards ESG sensitive policies, the Budget provides a push to digital equipment, solar power, EVs among others. Industries like hospitality which were trailing due to lockdowns have been included under the ECLGS scheme. This will also help to revive growth in bank credit which has been restricted more to the retail side in the last couple of years. An indication has been made that the IBC resolution process will be expedited which will be good for the system

Sanjiv Chadha
MD & CEO,
Bank of Baroda

as this has been a pain point in the entire process of tackling NPAs.

The extension of the ECLGS as well as including hospitality will further encourage banks to lend. A new avenue opened by the FM for banks is the concept of digital banking units in various districts.

Two new concepts have been proposed in the Budget which can have far reaching implications. The first is the introduction of a central bank digital currency which has become a topic for discussion everywhere in the world with Sweden probably being close to a full transition. The RBI will be working on this and as the concept evolves banks too must adapt to these changes as some of the payments channels that have developed in the e-space will now also have a central bank digital currency. The other is the green sovereign bond. This is a positive step being taken given the world is moving towards the ESG paradigm. The Budgetary numbers look good when juxtaposed against the growth in real GDP that is expected and as tax revenue runs along with this process. The fiscal deficit of 6.4% of GDP corresponds to a rather high borrowing programme of ₹14.95 lakh crore which will tend to pressurise liquidity and interest rates. The RBI role in managing this would be of interest to the market when the policy is announced a week from now.

Fraudulent transactions linked to BharatPe account: Probe

SAMIKSHA GOEL

@ New Indian Express

A preliminary investigation by risk advisory firm Alvarez and Marsal (A&M) commissioned by BharatPe's board has found fraudulent transactions linked to Madhuri Grover, wife of the company's co-founder Ashneer Grover and the firm's controller till recently.

The transactions are related to irregularities in payment to fictitious vendors. The probe says the firm pays fee to 'consultants' for employees recruited through them. "In 5 sample cases, the employees have confirmed their date of joining as slated in the vendor invoice. But they have denied being recruited or engaged through the stated consultant or any knowledge of them," it said.

The document notes that in at least three instances, Madhuri Grover has received the invoices from vendors and forwarded these to the accounts team for payment. The invoices were created by Shwetank Jain, brother of Madhuri Grover. It also found that close to ₹51 crore was paid to 30 vendors who appeared to be non-existent.

The DGGI conducted searches at the company's head office on Oct 21 last year, according to the document. On 11 Nov 2021, the company sent a communication to the DGGI on this issue. The letter was signed by "Deepak Jagdishram Gupta". The A&M document says Gupta was responsible for procurements at the company and is Madhuri Grover's brother-in-law. In this letter, Gupta said it is on the basis of DGGI probe they have come to know that some of the vendors of their company do not exist.

In a statement on Friday, BharatPe said, "We are deeply pained that the integrity of the BharatPe board or individual board members is being questioned time and again through misrepresented facts and baseless allegations. The Board in all its actions has followed due process in the best interest of the company. We would urge that the confidentiality and integrity of the governance review and board meetings is maintained by all," it said.

Just one bidder; BPCL disinvestment uncertain

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE disinvestment of state-owned Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited (BPCL) seems to be uncertain as the country's second-biggest refiner failed to get bidders. An official said, it has attracted only one bidder so far, whereas the government was expecting global majors such as Saudi Aramco.

"Due to environmental concerns and ESG considerations, very few bidders showed interest in BPCL. We only had one bidder and we thought that was not a competitive bidding," said a finance ministry official on the condition of anonymity.

In its last budget 2021-22, the government pitched aggressively for the disinvestment of government entities including Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited (BPCL), Shipping Corporation of India, Air India, Neelachal Ispat Nigam Limited, Container Corporation of India, IDBI Bank, BEML Limited and Pawan Hans, among others. It had set an ambitious disinvestment target of ₹1,75,000 crore.

The sale of BPCL, where the government is to sell its entire stake of 52.98%, hasn't made much progress since last April. It seems difficult for the company to complete the sale process in this fiscal year too.

As per reports, only 3 bidders — Vedanta group, Apollo Global Management Inc. and I

Squared Capital Advisors — have shown interest in it. Among these, only Anil Agarwal-led Vedanta is in the race. In fact, Vedanta Group's chairman, in one of his interviews, said his company is willing to spend $12 billion for the deal. "The market cap of the company is about $11 billion to $12 billion, so this is the amount of investment we're looking at.... We're not going to bid aggressively, but we will put the right price," said Agarwal said.

New Delhi: Steel major Tata Steel on Friday said its consolidated net profit more than doubled to ₹9,598.16 crore for the quarter ended December 2021, mainly on account of higher income. In a regulatory filing, the company said it had clocked a net profit of ₹4,010.94 crore in the year-ago period. Total income during the October-December quarter also jumped to ₹60,842.72 crore, from ₹42,152.87 crore earlier.

Insolvency plea filed against Zee

New Delhi: Zee Entertainment on Friday said that the IndusInd Bank has filed an application before the Mumbai bench of the NCLT, seeking resolution process against the company to recover dues of ₹83.08 cr. "The application has been filed under Section 7 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 by IndusInd Bank Limited, claiming to be a financial creditor," Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited (ZEEL) said in a regulatory filing.

Godrej Properties junks DB Realty deal

A day after announcing possible investment for a stake in DB Realty, Mumbai based real estate Godrej Properties said it has decided not to go ahead with the investment.

The company said the decision was taken after receiving shareholders' feedback.

"After prolonged discussions and taking into consideration the feedback from the stakeholders and minority investors, the Board has decided not to proceed with any further evaluation of potential investment in the equity capital of the DB Realty and the Platform," Godrej Properties said in a regulatory filing.

It added that the company may however continue to explore the possibility of evaluating projects with DB Realty on a case to case basis.

The company on Thursday had said that it has plans to invest ₹400 crore to acquire around 10% stake in DB Realty. It also plans to set up a ₹600 crore equal joint platform to develop slum redevelopment projects. "Godrej Properties Ltd has approved a potential investment in DB Realty Limited and also the setting up of a special purpose vehicle along with DBR to jointly undertake slum rehabilitation and MHADA redevelopment projects," GPL said in a regulatory filing on Thursday.

On Friday, the company's shares fell nearly 10% to close at ₹1,511 on the NSE. ENS

QUARTERLY RESULTS

IndiGo posts profit after 7 quarters; Co-founder Bhatia takes MD seat

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU

@ New Delhi

AFTER reporting massive losses for 7 consecutive quarters, India's largest airline IndiGo (InterGlobe Aviation) on Friday surprised everyone by reporting ₹129.79 crore profit in the December quarter (Q3FY22), backed by higher revenue and yields. IndiGo had reported a loss of ₹621.80 crore in the corresponding quarter of the previous fiscal and ₹1,435.7 crore in the September quarter (Q2FY22).

IndiGo's net revenue surged 89% to ₹9,294.77 crore from ₹4,909.98 crore a year ago. Its passenger ticket revenues came in at ₹8,073.10 crore, up 98.4%, while ancillary revenue stood at ₹1,141.70 crore, an increase of 41.3% compared to the year-ago quarter.

The airline on Thursday also appointed co-founder Rahul Bhatia as managing director with immediate effect. Bhatia said his agenda would be transformational and would focus on expanding the airline's presence in India and in international markets and building for the long term.

The appointment comes after a three year long bitter war between the two promoters of IndiGo over corporate governance issues and disagreement over certain clauses in the article of association (AoA). Very recently, the legal dispute was said to be settled after InterGlobe Aviation Board voted to scrap a clause in the AoA that gives the airline's two promoters a right of first refusal (RoFR) over the acquisition of each other's shares.

InterGlobe Aviation is promoted by Rahul Bhatia and Rakesh Gangwal. Together, the two own a 74.4% stake in the airline.

Bhatia taking the pilot seat of the airline, which had 283 aircraft as on December 2021, also comes at a time when competition in the Indian sky is expected to shoot up.

Analysts feel that the arrival of billionaire investor Rakesh Jhunjhunwala-backed Akasa

Air will give direct competition to IndiGo in the domestic market while Air India under the Tata Group is likely to give a tough run to airlines with ambitious overseas plans. IndiGo, as of now, controls 55-60% of India's domestic air travel. IndiGo Chairman Melevetil Damodaran said, "This (the appointment) will further strengthen the airline in the years ahead. He added that Bhatia would oversee all aspects of the airline."

City Union Bank Q3 net rises 15%

Total income declined 5.7% year on year to ₹1,195.24 crore mainly on a drop in other income. The bank reported a higher capital adequacy ratio of 19.39%, up from 17.39% a year ago. Asset quality worsened from a year ago but improved sequentially, with GNPA ratio at 5.21% in Q3 FY22 against 2.94% in the year ago quarter and 5.58% in the preceding quarter. Net NPA ratio rose to 3.44% from 1.47% a year ago but fell from 3.48% in the preceding quarter.

Bank of India Q3 profit surges 90%

New Delhi: Bank of India (BoI) on Friday reported 90% surge in net profit at ₹1,027 crore for the third quarter ended December 2021 as bad loans situation improved. The state-owned bank had logged a net profit of ₹540.72 crore in the year-ago period. However, total income during the quarter was down at ₹11,211.44 crore as against ₹12,310.92 crore in the same period a year ago, BoI said in a regulatory filing. Net Interest Income (NII) too slipped to ₹3,408 crore from ₹3,739 crore a year ago, it said. Gross NPA fell to 10.46% of gross advances at the end of December 2021 against 13.25% in a year ago.

The minister while addressing the media post budget said all the infrastructure projects and the production linked incentives in the 14 sectors will generate a lot of jobs in the future. Guruprasad Srinivasan, Chief Operating Officer, Quess Corp, says a major challenge is the availability of the right talent for the activities proposed across the 7 engines. "There is a pressing need for faster implementation of the Labour Codes, which would allow various employment models to come together and strengthen talent availability," he adds. "We can expect almost 50% of the 60 lakh jobs the government is planning to come from these sectors by 2024-25," says Indranil Ghosh, VP & Business Head, TeamLease Services. However, he adds, "While the intent is great, the biggest challenge will be the implementation."

Jaijit Bhattacharya, an economist, says, modern manufacturing has very low labour to capital intensity due to high automation. More jobs are created in supply chain, logistics, warehousing, exports, retail etc than in core manufacturing.

Lohit Bhatia, President, Indian Staffing Federation says, the near-term benefit of 60 lakh jobs is possible with benefits under PLI scheme.

Cricket Australia has confirmed its first tour of Pakistan since 1998, locking in a three-Test series despite lingering security concerns. Australia will play Tests — in Rawalpindi, Karachi and Lahore — fresh off the back of a home Ashes victory against England. They will also play three ODIs and a T20I capping the month-long tour on April 5.

FINAL EXAM FOR BOYS

Dhull & Co will take on England U-19 in the World Cup final today

GOMESH S @ Chennai

AS Yash Dhull led India U-19 to a clinical win against Australia in the semifinal with a match-winning hundred on Wednesday, he joined Virat Kohli and Unmukt Chand as the third India captain to score a hundred in the global event. The other two went on to win the World Cup, after which their career took contrasting turns.

Kohli became the most successful senior team captain while Chand never played for India and recently became the first male cricketer from the country to take part in the Big Bash League. Dhull was asked, at various points in the tournament, by the media about Ranji Trophy, IPL auction, being the next big thing. However, the 19-year-old has put his foot down and maintained that they, as a team, aren't looking ahead of the World Cup. While it's hard to believe that they don't even have a thought at the back of their mind, the results are backing up the skipper's statement. Despite being hit by Covid, not once but twice, the young brigade never looked perturbed. At various stages, one player or the other has stood up for them — the openers Angkrish Raghuvanshi and Harnoor Singh in Dhull's absence or the captain himself in the semifinal. The bowlers, on the other hand, have been consistent through the tournament with the spinners leading the attack.

India will make their eighth U-19 World Cup final appearance on Saturday | TWITTER

On Saturday, as they take on England, who will be playing their first final since 1998, the teams on either side of the 22 yards could be feeling a different kind of pressure. While India have been largely clinical with their performances in every match, England had their share of nervy moments, especially in the semifinal clash against Afghanistan. The young lions will be looking take confidence from their previous match and try to win their second title and India, the most successful team in the history of the tournament, would want to go one step further this time after losing to Bangladesh in the 2020 final.

The pressure of knockouts, especially when the team almost has one hand on the trophy, could have different effects on players, making them try different things. As the ever-energetic Kohli interacted with the Indian players ahead of the summit clash, and provided them the necessary confidence, they might also want to take a look at what the other title-winning captain and centurion in the 2012 final, Chand, wrote about what went wrong with his career since.

"When you go out to bat, just remember why you first held that bat in the first place. You could have chosen a tennis racket, a hockey stick, boxing gloves. But no, you chose this bat and ball and you chose it for a reason. Close your eyes and remember the first time you held it. It was simple then, and it should be simple now," he wrote on Wisden in 2020.

If India could keep things simple and do that on Saturday, adding another silverware to the trophy cabinet might not look that difficult.

Key Points

As the four-time champions India face England in the U-19 World Cup final on Saturday, a look at the key points ahead of the summit dash..

It is the eighth final appearance for the Indian Colts, who had finished second three in the past — 2006, 2016 & 2020. England, on the other hand, will be playing in the final after 22 years, their second in the history of the tournament.

INDIA'S BATTING DEPTH

India's lower-order has stepped up and performed as per the situation so far, whether it's bailing them out or going bonkers in death overs. With Rajvardhan S Hangargekar and Dinesh Bana striking at over 150, England will have to find a way to pick wickets in regular intervals.

SPIN TO WIN FOR ENGLAND?

Rehan Ahmed has been the game-changer for England along with left-arm pacer Joshua Boyden. The leg-spinner has taken 12 wickets so far, including a 4-fer in the semifinal, but it will be interesting to see how he does against India, who have lost just 4 of their 30 wickets to spin.

BIG GAME PRESSURE

While there has been a lot of talk about the IPL auction and what next for the U-19 stars, both England and Indian players have kept their eye on target and held their nerves in the knockouts. It could all come down to who thrives under pressure come Saturday.

Vesely, Musetti exit Tata Open, Indian duo follows

ENS/AGENCIES @ Bengaluru

THINGS did not go according to plan for the second seed Lorenzo Musetti and defending champion Jiri Vesely in the ongoing Tata Open Maharashtra in Pune on Friday. If the unseeded man from Poland, Kamil Majchrzak, came up with an impressive performance to edge past Italy's Musetti 6-2, 6-7(7-5), 6-4 in a close quarter final encounter, Emil Ruusuvuori of Finland secured a straight sets 6-3, 6-4 victory over Vesely. Both the winners will meet one another in the semifinals on Saturday.

Majchrzak was off the blocks quickly, easing past his opponent in the first set, but Musetti sprung back in the second with a better display to force a decider. Eventually, world No. 95 Majchrzak managed to put on a good show to clinch the contest. One needs to give credit the way the Polish player delivered despite the Italian testing him in the last two sets.

"It was very difficult because after the first set Lorenzo changed his tactics. He made me play longer rallies and he actually found his rhythm so it was difficult from almost the beginning of the second set. Maybe, I was not returning good enough to put pressure on his service games," Majchrzak said after the match.

In the other clash, the 22-year-old Ruusuvuori took just 77 minutes to ease past Vesely in straight sets. In fact, the Finnish has been in an impressive run this edition as he had started the campaign with a victory over last edition's runner-up Egor Gerasimov. Meanwhile, N Sriram Balaji and Vishnu Varadhan suffered a defeat against the duo of Luke Saville and John-Patrick Smith in the doubles semi-finals encounter.

PVL first season starts today

MARTIN JOSEPH @ Kochi

THE Prime Volleyball League (PVL) is being billed in some ways as a first of its kind volleyball competition which is modelled on the likes of the Indian Premier League and Pro Kabaddi League.

Rewind a few years back and one will notice that it is largely the same league tournament that was held under the name Pro Volleyball League.

Look closer and there is one significant difference between the two as the rechristened version is a completely independent competition without the approval of the Volleyball Federation of India, which is in fact trying to come up with its own league.

Interestingly, just as the PVL is expected to kick-start on Saturday in Hyderabad, the senior national championship has also been announced in Cuttack around the same time.

Buoyant BFC ready for Jamshedpur test

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU FC are enjoying a good run in the Indian Super League with the Blues unbeaten in their last eight games. With the team delivering good results, the buoyant team are set to face Jamshedpur FC at the GMC Athletic Stadium in Bhubaneswar on Saturday.

It is going to be a big test with their opponents also in impressive form, winning their last three matches on a trot. Bengaluru, who are currently fourth on the table with 20 points, should be pleased with how things have transpired in the last few matches after their below par show in the initial set of matches. Besides the results, the likes of Udanta Singh, Sunil Chhetri among others have been inspiring.

Most of the Bengaluru players have returned to the squad after getting out of quarantine after Covid-19 outbreak within their camp, but their availability might be a late call. However, they will miss the services of Congolese striker Prince Ibara, who is suspended after picking up his fourth yellow card of the season.

"We have players returning to the squad, but some of them have spent long periods of time within their rooms, and they are not match fit yet. We will need time to assess them and bring them back into training systematically, before we can decide whether they can play matches or not," Bengaluru FC head coach Marco Pezzaioli said.

But the gaffer is aware of the threat Jamshedpur possesses. The Red Miners have some brilliant players, including Greg Stewart and Daniel Chukwu among others. Their defense is quite good with the team having conceded just 12 goals, but they will miss their key defender Peter Hartley.

"Jamshedpur are a very good physical team with a lot of quality players. They have added a new striker in (Daniel) Chima, who brings a lot of speed and can score goals. They are a team against which it is tough to create chances, but I do believe we can do well as a unit," said Pezzaioli, who was also not happy with the league's decision to revise some fixtures midway.

DAY'S DIARY

Apollo 14

On this day in 1971, Apollo 14 astronauts, Alan Shepard and Edgar Mitchell, made their lunar landing in the Fra Mauro formation of the Moon

MOONWALK

This was originally the target of Apollo 13. During the two walks on the surface, they collected 94.35 pounds of Moon rocks and deployed several scientific experiments

INITIAL PLAN

To the dismay of some geologists, Shepard and Mitchell did not reach the rim of Cone Crater as had been planned, though they came close

GOLF ON THE MOON

One of Apollo 14's most famous incident was Shepard — the spacecraft's commander — hitting two golf balls he had brought with him with a makeshift club

After shooting to fame with A Suitable Boy, actor Mikhail Sen is once again the talk of the town for his new series, The Good Karma Hospital, a British medical drama, where he stars alongside Neil Morrissey and Darshan Jariwala

MONIKA MONALISA

MIKHAIL Sen played the character of Amit Chatterji, 'a Bengali bhadralok' in Mira Nair's A Suitable Boy with so much ease. It almost appeared that he was destined for it. Life after the much-talked about series has been great for Sen with diverse offers coming his way. One such is British series The Good Karma Hospital, which also includes actors like Shabana Azmi, Rajat Kapoor, Sayani Gupta, and Darshan Jariwala, to name a few.

Shot in picturesque Sri Lanka, Sen plays the character of Nimish Chari, who he explains as a bit of a 'wheeler-dealer'. While he admits that the shoot was a lot of fun, he also calls himself 'fortunate for having been part of it'. "It was amazing to be with a fabulous cast on the beaches of Sri Lanka. Of course, we were in lockdown, so we could not leave the hotel and spent a lot of time together," says Sen, adding that Nimish has been brought in to save one of the characters — whose visa has expired — from being deported.

Nimish's character, a 'slightly deceptive and dodgy kind of lawyer', made Sen fall in love with the role. But what's interesting is Sen's portrayal of Nimish which is inspired by a friend of his from Bengaluru. "I always look for people like the character I'm playing. So I used some mannerisms of a friend of mine," says Sen with a laugh.

ileged to be part of a show," says Sen, who took a detour to namma oor after he was done with the shoot. "I was in Bengaluru for 10 days because I needed some 'Airlines dosae', good filter coffee and 'Nagarjuna biryani'. But most importantly to see my parents," says Sen. Living in the middle of a pandemic, Sen seems to have figured his way to keep positive. "There's some peace in the chaos, you just have to allow yourself to be comfortable in the uncertainty. The career I chose, whether I like it or not, is filled with uncertainty at the best of times. Pandemic or otherwise, an actor doesn't always have work. So I just believe in going with the flow. I don't think I've mastered the art yet, but I'm practising it," says Sen, who is part of a project — that will be out at the end of the year — with a 'well-known production house'.

I always look for people like the character I'm playing. So to essay the role of the lawyer in this particular series, I used some mannerisms of a friend of mine from Bengaluru

Witness the witty and humorous side of writer Saadat Hasan Manto in this B'loru theatre practitioner's play Ishtihaar

Exploring Manto's magic

A scene from the play

EXPRESS FEATURES

THEATRE artiste Deevaa Gupta loves the way Saadat Hasan Manto expresses sensitive emotions. While many remember Manto for writing provocative stories, Gupta feels there is part of Manto's style which is 'less explored'. Gupta hopes to explore that side of Manto in Ishtihaar, which will be performed at Kalagrah: House of Performing Arts, Bengaluru, on Feb 5, and Ranga Shankara on Feb 8.

The play is a collection of short stories by Manto, well-known Urdu poet during the time of partition. The 80-minute performance is stitched together via poetry freshly written by Gupta. Performed by two actors, Gupta and Prakil Singh, the play has a humorous and witty take on the stories.

Even if Gupta has performed the play many times before, he still gets nervous about getting it right. "That's the magic of the stage, it always keeps you on your toes," says Gupta, who has been reading Manto for a long time and has been performing his plays since 2015.

The more he reads Manto's work, the more he believes there is a part of Manto that people don't know about. "I love the movie (Manto), but director Nandita Das was trying to show the difficulties that Manto was going through. In the two-hour film, she was not able to show the range of the writer. That's what I felt," says Gupta.

Having been doing theatre for a long time, Gupta feels the stage is the best place to explore Manto's work. "One has to be creative about presenting his work because there is a risk of him not being understood. And the beauty of Manto is that he is still relevant," says Gupta. Since the play has just two actors, Gupta feels that the writing itself has so much depth that it does not need anything more.

"We didn't want the content to be overshadowed. That's why there are two actors and no sets," explains the actor.

Ishtihaar will be performed at Kalagrah: House of Performing Arts, Bengaluru, on Feb 5, at 7.30 pm, and Ranga Shankara on Feb 8, at 7.30 pm

FIT BIT

GOOLF GHOORNAN (ANKLE CRANK)

In Sanskrit, 'goolf' means ankle and 'ghoornan' means rotation. It is a simple asana, in which, you have to rotate your ankles while sitting in a specific position. This strengthens both your knees and ankle joints. This is an excellent asana for those who have to stand continuously for long hours. On the physical plane, stay aware of your breath while in the pose. It is very good for calming the nervous system and preparing you for meditation. You can stay in this pose for several minutes or as long as it feels comfortable to allow the body to relax and the mind calm. Spiritually, it focuses on the areas of your Ajna (Third eye) Chakra while practicing. Practising regularly helps you meet with your divine self. Practise in the presence of an expert.

STEPS

- Begin in Dandasana (Staff Pose) and breathe normally.
- Bend the left knee and bring the foot towards the buttock.
- Turn the knee out to the side and place the foot on the right thigh. Make sure the ankle is far enough over the thigh to be free for rotation.
- Hold the left ankle with the left hand. Hold the left toes with the right hand. Slowly rotate the left foot 10 times clockwise, and then anti-clockwise. Repeat with the right foot placed on the left thigh.
- Beginners can stay here for 1-2 minutes or until you start feeling discomfort. Advanced yogis can stay for 3-4 minutes.
- Breathing: Inhale on the upward movement, exhale on the downward movement. Maintain a constant breath while holding the pose.

BENEFITS

- Useful for edema and cramping.
- Facilitates mental and physical balance.
- Alternative for those who have tight hips and cannot sit in advanced postures.
- Calms your mind and body.
- Your back becomes stronger and steadier.
- Gives knees and ankles a good stretch.
- Broadens chest and collar bones.
- Body alignment is improved.
- Stress, tension and anxiety reduces.
- Balances the mind, increases the concentration power.
- Thinking process becomes clear.
- Can be practised during pregnancy.

LIMITATIONS

- If you have hip and knee injuries, or both are inflamed, and feel body pain avoid this.
- People with slipped disc problem should practice very carefully.
- You can use cushioning to make yourself comfortable.

LIMPING BACK OR FORWARD

RUBINATIONS
Rubi Chakravarti
Writer, actor and funny girl

LOOKS like we are limping back to (ab)normal. The descriptions vary from horror-stories (Friday the 13th esque) to a very blasé 'I don't know if I even got it'. My very cool doctor/friend says the only thing that she can promise is that no one will die from Covid. She didn't specify illnesses that may arise out of the infection, like myocardial infarction. The heart beats to the march of its own drum n'est ce pas? And we know author Carson McCullers said: 'The heart is a lonely hunter'. Indeed!

Following my ageing heart isn't as exciting as before. That certain zest for the pursuit of prospects is missing. A sense of ennui and a 'what is the point' sweeps over me quite often. During those times, the comfortable way out is to curl up with a book or watch movies wearing 'inside clothes' (read: nightwear without any impediments), a refreshing drink and good music in the background. I am alarmed to report that this supine position may last from a couple of hours to days!

So, when I come across friends, both young and old, who are undaunted by circumstances or excuses, I must say I do feel a little sheepish at my cache of excuses. I still haven't been able to wear my brand new squeaky Nikes' and walk in Cubbon Park which is literally four buildings down the street! Annabelle Manwaring is one such friend who I have idolised from junior school. She used to be the head girl at the very prestigious Sophia High School and it was a big deal. In fact, I quite shamelessly basked in her aura because she and my older sister were besties.

Annabelle has always wanted to be the best at what she did. Whether as the head-girl in school or a topper in LSR College in Delhi, she had a verve and determination that hasn't diminished to date. As a young bride in London, she was the Global Head of Leo Burnett and when she returned to India she dove head-long into women and child upliftment projects with various NGOs. She took over as Chairman for the prestigious DPS in Whitefield in 2006. Her father was the Chief Secretary to the Government so she was quick to learn and master the many twists and turns in politics. She used this to strategise her sister Louise and her brother-in-law, the past law minister Salman Khurshid's, campaign in North India. Fixing something broken and restoring it to its former glory is her moot point. When she won the Bangalore Club's election by a thumping margin (first woman to have done so in its 150-year-old history) and was disarmingly modest when asked how she felt. She simply replied that she didn't put an emphasis on a man or a woman winning the post. All she knew was she had something to give and she was ready to work for a place we all grew up in. The United Services Club (BUS Club) where all our fathers who once served the country proudly, were members. A woman who lost both her mother and brother within the month that she was campaigning, but who still got up and did her job, with the same fervour and commitment has my unwavering respect.

The young Aditya Sharma impressed me a great deal. An exponent of the classical dance form Kathak, he is bright, articulate and deeply sensitive. He says he was immediately attracted to the complicated footwork sequencing as a young child when he saw his first performance. He feels that it is an experiential art-form that has the power to change one's spiritual, mental and physical well-being. The best part is that he makes time for everything. friends, fast cars, and a corporate job. Viva juvenescence. We need more youngsters like him!

NO BAKE NUTELLA CHEESECAKE

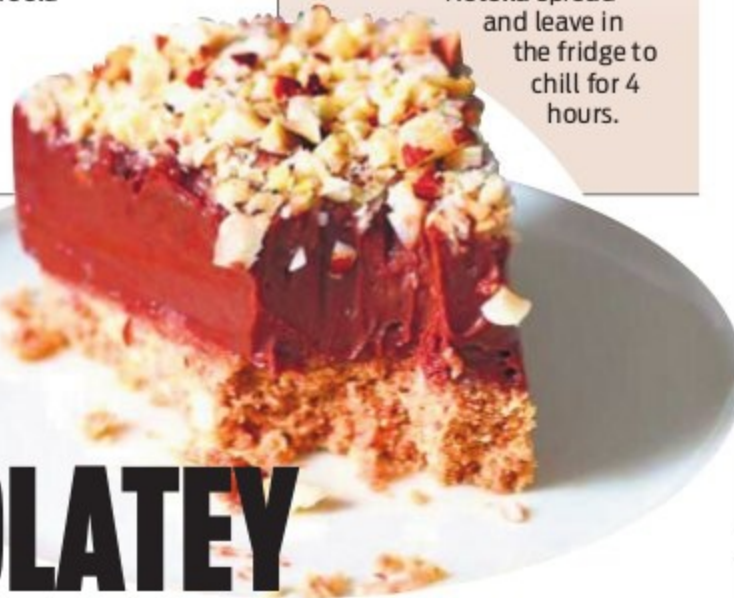

INGREDIENTS

- Digestive biscuits 140 gm
- Butter 4 tbsps
- Toasted nuts of your choice 1/2 cup
- Nutella 1/2 jar
- Cream cheese at room temperature 250 gm
- Powdered sugar 2-3 tbsps
- Sliced bananas /strawberries (optional)

● Crumble the biscuits and add butter. Hand blend these ingredients until the mix is soft and even but crumbly. Place in a baking tin and press hard until the mix forms a tight and even layer. Leave in the fridge to chill for an hour.

● In a separate bowl, mix cream cheese, Nutella and sugar. Blend until smooth. Remove the baking tin from the fridge and add this mix carefully spreading it out all the way till the edges. It would be best to use spring foam to ensure the cake doesn't have to be upside down.

● Crush and toast the nuts and leave to cool. You can chop Snickers into these nuts. Place this nutty-chocolate mix on the Nutella spread and leave in the fridge to chill for 4 hours.

Producer Pushkar Mallikarjunaiah turns hero

CE FEATURES

PUSHKAR Mallikarjunaiah, who has donned the producer's hat for films like Godhi Bana Sadharna Mykattu and Avane Srimannarayana, is set to fulfill his wish of becoming an actor.

Pushkar is all set to turn hero for a yet-to-be-titled film, which will be helmed by debutant Aditya Guna-vanthe, who has worked as an AD in Kapoor and Sons, and co-directed the Vicky Kaushal-starrer, Bhoot.

Speaking about his acting career, Pushkar says, "I was longing to become an actor over the last four years. I have dedicated over 2 years of my time and attended 300 hours of workshops to learn the nuances of acting. I am now confident and ready to face the camera." Throwing some light about his debut, Pushkar shares that the film is based on cow therapy, and he plays the role of a superstar.

Backed by Pushkar himself under the Pushkar Films banner, the film will be officially launched on February 6, and the shooting will start from the next day. "The film will be shot in two schedules. Post the muhurat, we will be traveling to Kudremukh, where 50 percent of portions will be filmed, and the rest of the shooting will be held in Bengaluru," says Pushkar.

The film will also mark the debut of Harish and Praveen, who will be handling the cinematography and music, respectively.

DANISH SAIT SHINES IN THIS SATIRICAL COMEDY

ONE CUT TWO CUT

Cast: Danish Sait, Prakash Belawadi, Samyukta Hornad, Sampath Kumar and Aruna Balraj

Director: Vamsidhar Bhogaraju

Streaming on: Amazon Prime Video

A SHARADHAA

IN One Cut Two Cut, Danish Sait, known for the hit character Humble Politician Nagraj, returns as an equally quirky character Gopi. Gopi is already popular among Danish's online fans through the actor's online video content. Now, we see Gopi as an art and craft professor in this light-hearted comedy thriller, directed by debutant Vamsidhar Bhogaraju. Danish makes sure that the humour in the film works as much as it did in Humble Politician Nagraj.

The film kicks off with Gopi's first day as the professor in the college. However, instead of teaching students, a different task awaits him: saving the college and students from a hostage situation. Gopi (Danish Sait), two teachers (Samyukta Hornad and Aruna Balraj), and kids are taken hostage by certain social media activists. How this naive Gopi battles his way out and manages to safeguard forms the crux of One Cut Two Cut, which ends with a cold climax.

A story conceived by Vamsidhar along with Danish Sait, set inside this educational institution, serves as a cat-and-mouse game between the teacher and the kidnappers. Though the film projects itself as a satirical comedy, it underlines many issues of Bengaluru - like the plight of Government schools, traffic, and the importance of the local language. It is about the existence of numerous neglected issues of this 'well-developed' city. Debutant Vamsi has tried to find the right balance between comedy and social messages of the film.

RATING

On the other hand, Danish comfortably gets under the skin of Gopi. He delivers his best with the appearance, body language, and dialogues. Samyukta Hornad as Gopi's love interest and Aruna Balraj as one of the school teachers turn out to be good supporting actors.

It was interesting to know the background of each miscreant and their demands. Their quirkiness adds a lot of flavour to the film like the radio Jockey at AIR (Prakash Belawadi) and his weird connection with Amitabh Bachchan. All in all, if you're a Danish Sait's fan and like his brand of comedy, then One Cut Two Cut deserves your time.

LOOPLAPETA

Cast: Taapsee Pannu, Tahir Raj Bhasin, Dibyendu Bhatlacharya

Director: Aakash Bhatia

Streaming on: Netflix

SHILAJIT MITRA

IF something bugs you about a movie, no matter how small or insignificant, it just does. There's no getting around it. In Loop Lapeta, clearly set in Goa, the names of places are switched up: Napusa for Mapusa, Tandovi river for Mandovi river, Paula Dona for Dona Paula. I've been to Goa just twice, yet the changes irk. The human ear is trained for accuracy. If you're going to bend reality, at least do it with some purpose.

Purpose was abundant when Tom Tykwer directed Run Lola Run several years ago. I'd seen the film in college—it's one of those titles you just can't miss. Hip, frenetic, the film combined multiple threads—cinematic as well as philosophical—yet all I remember is Franka Potente's sweaty face as she darted through blurs of Berlin traffic. She ran because she really had to—and fast.

Savi (Taapsee Pannu), the protagonist of Loop Lapeta, is driven by the same crises as in the original film. The very first scene informs us—and her—that she's pregnant. Her boyfriend, Satya (Tahir Raj Bhasin), has lost a bag of money entrusted to him by local criminals. He has fifty minutes to complete the job; he'll mostly die if he doesn't. Desperate to bail him out, Savi makes the same run thrice—after each attempt, she's magically returned to square one and has to begin again. The makers clearly see why this might lose some viewers. Hence, perhaps, the prefiguring in its title, and the planting of a parable from Indian myth.

Loop Lapeta is directed by Aakash Bhatia, who has a background in commercials and music videos. His feature film, likewise, gives the impression of a showreel. Cinematographer Yash Khanna and editor Priyank Prem Kumar go all out, incorporating match cuts, jump cuts, POVs, split-screens and all kinds of crazy flourishes. As Savi and Satya kiss in bed, the camera floats up with them; elsewhere, it twists in from the side. Almost every event gets caught from multiple perspectives. Aakash has the enthusiasm of a young Bejoy Nambiar—a comparison that, I hope, should also double as a warning. When the pace decelerates, and the film eases up a bit, it creates a moment of beauty or interest. The couple's flashbacks are lovingly rendered (credit, also, to Taapsee and Tahir's easy chemistry). The plot doesn't deviate so much from the original as introduce minor kinks and twists along the way. I remember Lola's father as having a mistress—here, we get an equivalent character, but in love with a man. Gender reversal is hinted at in an earlier scene, Satya revealing coyly that he played Savitri, not Satyavan, in a school play.

A character of note is Victor, Satya's boss, played by Dibyendu Bhatlacharya. He drives around in a red vintage hardtop, attends AA meetings, and stuffs and marinates a turkey with paralyzing glee. Dibyendu always brings something extra to screen—would Dev D (2009), a film Loop Lapeta namechecks in one scene, be the same without him? There are other winners in the cast: Shreya Dhanwanthary, delivering a monologue as a perplexed bride, all but walks away with the film. Released in 1998, Run Lola Run was dissected heavily for its philosophical themes. The culture has largely dissipated now—and probably never really existed in India. What we understand, instead, is emotion. Underneath its bravura camera angles and endless flash, Loop Lapeta is a simple love story, and viewers will likely latch on to that. The film underlines this through its use of songs, which are winningly old-school and uncharacteristic. There's even a raucous Qawwali number in the middle of a store heist.

Savi, we learn, is a worrier; she carries her past with her. Given the emphasis on victory in Indian sports films—so many of them starring Taapsee—the realisation in Loop Lapeta hits home. Nothing's that important. Chill, Savi, chill.
